Refuses to Take Jurisdiction On Powers of Gov. Reynolds

MADISON (AP) — The State Supreme Court refused today to take original jurisdiction of a case to decide if Gov. John W. Reynolds is authorized to install new appointees while the Legislature is in recess.

In bringing the test case, the Democratic governor sought approval to seal Ray J. Theisen of Eau Claire on the State College Board of Regents, and Martin Hanson of Mellen and Alderman Harold Jankowski of Milwaukee on the State Conservation Commission.

Confirmation Refused
Confirmation of the three appointees was denied by the Republican controlled Senate before the Legislature recessed until Nov. 9. Reynolds renamed the appointees and had hoped to seat them on grounds that the long recess constituted an adjournment.

A governor has authority to make appointments during a legislative interim.

Reynolds had hoped to further clarify law governing appointments and to gain a judicial

Members of Narcotics Ring Sent to Prison

CHICAGO (AP)—The reputed leader of a $10 million-a-year dope ring, Americo Di Pietro, 50, of Lombard, Ill., has been sentenced to a 20-year prison term by a U.S. District Court judge.

Judge Joseph Sam Perry also sentenced 11 co-defendants to prison terms ranging from 20 years to five years. The defendants earlier this month had been convicted on charges of conspiring to sell narcotics.

The other 20-year prison terms were meted out to Mike De Maro, 50, and Charles Cole, 55, both of Chicago.

Others Face Trials
Twenty other persons, named as co-conspirators in the dope ring, are scheduled to face conspiracy and narcotics charges. The defendants were arrested after an alleged narcotics pusher was shot and killed by a federal agent last fall.

During the nine-week trial of Di Pietro and the others, the government presented $25,000 in heroin, allegedly brought from the defendants, and $1,420 in marked money allegedly used in payoffs.

Di Pietro, after sentence was pronounced, proclaimed his innocence. "I never had anything to do with narcotics in my life," he said.

Castro's Sister Says He Betrayed Revolution

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Fidel Castro's sister Juanita has defected, charging that the Cuban prime minister betrayed his revolution and sold out Cuba to the Soviet Union.

"The people of Cuba are nailed to a cross of torment imposed by international communism," Juanita Castro Ruz said Monday night in an emotion-charged statement to Mexican television commentator Guillermo Vela.

With tears in her eyes and her voice breaking, the 41-year-old woman read a six-page denunciation of the Cuban regime headed by her brothers Fidel and Raul.

Miss Castro, one of seven Castro brothers and sisters, refused to say how she came to Mexico from Cuba. Her sister Emma has lived in Mexico City since her marriage three years ago to a Mexican engineer.

Miss Castro said she had supported her brother's revolution against dictator Fulgencio Batista by collecting money, arms and medicine in Cuba and abroad. After his victory she dedicated herself to building schools and hospitals, she said, but she soon realized Castro had abandoned the ideals of his revolution and "we were being deceived."

She said there are now 75,000 political prisoners in Cuba and the island is "an enormous prison surrounded by water."

Deteriorating conditions in the last few months finally forced her to flee, she said.

Republicans in State Irked by Scranton Drive

Stop-Goldwater Efforts Stir Anger, Peterson Declares

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Wisconsin Republican chairman said Monday there is a widespread feeling among state party members that they will "sit on their hands" during the presidential campaign if Sen. Barry Goldwater is not the GOP candidate for president.

Talbot Peterson of Appleton said party leaders all over the state were angered over attempts by the liberal wing to stop the Arizona senator.

Peterson said he considered the situation so serious that he had written of it to William Miller, national party chairman.

"Wisconsin Republican leaders resent the last minute intrusion of Gov. William Scranton of Pennsylvania in the race," he said. "They also resent the ganging up on Goldwater tactics that some of these people are using."

Cool Toward Scranton

Peterson predicted that party leadership would give Scranton a cool reception if he visited Wisconsin. He said party leaders had promised Goldwater that the Wisconsin delegation to the GOP national convention would remain uncommitted and not meet with candidates until sessions open in San Francisco July 13.

The Badger delegation is pledged to Rep. John Byrnes of Green Bay as a favorite son.

Peterson said he had not received official word from Byrnes on whether the delegates would be released before the convention but it appeared that Byrnes would not release them.

Young Pitcher Shot to Death

BOYLSTON, Mass. (AP) — The 12-year-old pitcher of a Little League baseball team was shot to death for trespassing on an elderly man's property, police said today.

Richard Beauregard was killed Monday when hit in the neck with a slug from a 30-30 rifle.

Carl Anderson, 67, a retired merchant seaman, was charged with murder.

Police said seven boys including Richard and his twin brother, Robert, were on Anderson's property near the victim's home. Anderson had complained to police recently about boys trespassing on his land, they said.

13 Missing, 2 Die in Oil Rig Explosion

MORGAN CITY, La. (AP)—A floating oil rig exploded before dawn today off the Louisiana coast leaving at least two persons dead and 13 others missing.

The Coast Guard said 27 survivors, all badly burned, had been picked up and were being taken in helicopters to this coastal fishing town.

At least 42 men were on board the floating drilling rig, which the Coast Guard said was operating 78 miles southeast of here.

The rig collapsed and sank after the explosion.

The Coast Guard cutters Point Lee and Point Young were standing by at the scene along with a commercial tugboat, the M.P. Anderson, and a small motor vessel, the West Tide.

Standing by at the scene along with a commercial tugboat, the M. P. Anderson, was a small motor vessel, the West Tide.

The Coast Guard said the rig, named the C. P. Baker, was owned by Reading & Bates of Morgan City, and leased to Pan-American Oil Co.

First reports from survivors said the drilling crew hit a shallow high-pressure pocket of gas at 640 feet, causing the explosion.

Fire covered the rig and the surrounding water, temporarily preventing any of the men aboard from escaping.

Proxmire Hits Plan to Boost Congress Pay

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., announced today he would try to eliminate the $7,500 annual salary hike for members of Congress from the $550 million federal pay increase bill.

The measure has been scheduled for Senate floor action Wednesday. It passed the House June 11.

Proxmire, a candidate for reelection this year, said in a statement "the congressional pay increase is unjustified, unnecessary, and because it represents a dramatic example to the rest of the country, it could be seriously inflationary."

"Members of Congress at their present $22,500 pay level already receive more than three times the income of the average American family."

"When people are paid this handsomely in any line of work, the only convincing argument that even more should be paid is the clear proof that without additional pay candidates simply cannot be recruited to do the job."

Space Rocket Fails to Orbit

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Premature shut-down of the second-stage engine prevented a high energy Atlas-Centaur space rocket from hurling its second stage into orbit today.

The failure could further delay development of Atlas-Centaur — problem child of U.S. rocketry.

The rocket is being developed to launch unmanned project surveyor spacecraft to the moon next year to make measurements and to scout possible astronaut landing areas. The failure was the second in three test launchings for the vehicle.

But the National Aeronautics and Space Administration claimed some measure of success for today's mission when the two major objectives were achieved.

These were ejection of second-stage insulation panels and the restart of the Centaur-Space engine boost pump.

them to arrest the marchers.

It was the second successive early morning civil rights demonstration. Leaders of the shouting at police for making march promised frequent similar parades during the summer.

Today's march was called to rally support for picketing of Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania who will speak in downtown Chicago today. Civil rights leaders said 1,000 Negroes will picket Scranton, who is seeking the Republican nomination for president.

Before the Negroes paraded, Street and South Parkway, and they met in the open air at 47th Street and South Parkway to Stanley Branche, Chester, hear leaders of ACT, a national group of civil rights organizations.

Seven of the leaders were arrested and charged with conducting a public meeting without a police permit. The arrest included Jesse Gray, 40, coordinator of Harlem's Council on Housing and a leader of New York City's rent strike; and Lawrence Landry, national organizer of ACT.

The leaders were taken to a nearby police station. The crowd surged behind police cars, shouting at police for making the arrests.

The crowd milled around the police station for three hours, until the seven were released on $25 bond each.

Gray told a newsman "I was arrested because I was telling the crowd that Chicago cops are no worse than cops in Mississippi or New York."

After the seven were released, they led the crowd back to 47th Street and South Parkway, where they resumed speeches.

He can't control racial violence in his own state, so how can he control it in the country? Branche asked. ACT also sponsored an early morning march Monday of

Lodge Not Belligerent Toward Goldwater

BY JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP) — Henry Cabot Lodge came home from Viet Nam to try to stop Sen. Barry Goldwater but from what he said, or rather refused to say, you might get the impression he wasn't exactly belligerent. But you never can tell. Lodge, Pennsylvania's Gov. William W. Scranton, who is trying to beat Goldwater for the Republican presidential nomination, started off on a no-name basis. It took him a while to getting it a clear stop-Goldwater move. Lodge quit his job as U.S. ambassador to help Scranton's much he respected him, and made a farewell report to President Johnson at the White House, and then held a news conference.

He attacked what he referred to as the "shoot from the hip" rather than think from the head foreign policy," again without naming names. As he warmed up he threw out phrases against "radical reactionaries." Goldwater responded with "I welcome Bill Scranton into the race as one of the outstanding governors of the nation." Then the senator said that on Dec. 18, 1963 — a couple of weeks before he officially announced his candidacy — he received the following letter from Scranton who is now trying to block him from the nomination: "I read in the newspapers that you are reappraising your own situation to decide whether to be a candidate for the presidential nomination. I hope you decide to run, and I would like the opportunity, albeit impertinent, to discuss this with you."

Johnson Takes Out Papers for Congress Seat
Post-Crescent News Service
GREEN BAY — Cletus Johnson, a Green Bay lawyer, said today nomination papers are being printed and will go into circulation for him as a Democratic candidate for Eighth District congressman. While the circulating of nomination papers would appear to remove the last doubt of his candidacy, Johnson said there still is a possibility he will not become a candidate. The fact that July 14 is deadline for filing papers dictated the decision to put them in circulation, he said. Johnson said last week he was not interested in running if it meant he first must engage in a September primary. Kaukauna Mayor Joseph Bayorgeon has been conferring with district Democrats, and party officials expect Bayorgeon to announce his candidacy within a few days. Sturgeon Bay Mayor Frank Tachovsky also is a possible opponent. Tachovsky said last week he saw no harm to Democratic party chances by having a primary. But he said he had made no decision on his possible candidacy. Johnson, 42, has practiced law in Green Bay since 1951. Rep. John Byrnes, a Republican, will be running for an 11th term this fall.

Foreign Policy
But he warned some of his volunteer workers: "I don't want anybody in the least way getting personal; we need every vote we can get." One of Goldwater's supporters, Sen. Norris Cotton of New Hampshire, spoke up shortly afterward. He must have been having the same thoughts as Scranton for he said if the governor continued to attack the senator and deny nomination, I hope you took opposing sides on issues, he decide to run, and I would like might make himself unacceptable to Goldwater's supporters, even if he succeeded in stopping the Arizona at the Republican convention this month. But by last weekend Scranton was criticizing Goldwater by running himself, said he had sent a similar letter to two other persons whom he refused to name. For some days after starting it, Scranton asked about this letter after he started running himself, said he had sent a similar letter to two other persons whom he refused to name. But he attacked the "dime-store feudalism" of "radicals of weeks away. Lodge has time to the right" and said this is not get heated up enough to mention time to join "extreme reaction Goldwater by name."

Appleton Band Opens Concert Season Tonight

Frank Comella Heads Musicians in Pierce Park Concerts on Tuesdays

BY JINGO
Most oldsters remember with fondness the oldtime band concerts in the park. Back in the "good old days" few residents of village or small city failed to show up, at least for a while during the concerts. Many families spent the late afternoon hours picnicking from the well-stocked hamper in order to be ready listeners at the first downstroke of the band director's baton.

This concept of the old-fashioned "concert in the park" will be renewed this summer by Director Frank Comella and the members of his Appleton City Band.

Every Tuesday night at 7:15 p.m. sharp the band will give a concert in Pierce Park. The opening program of the seven-concert season is tonight and the rows of benches are in place in front of the band shell.

The one break in the weekly schedule is during the Outagamie County Fair when the City Band will appear in front of the Seymour grandstand on Appleton Day, July 16. This fair concert is scheduled for a 7:30 p.m. starting time. Because of this concert date, there will be no concert that week at Pierce Park.

The other dates are for July 21, July 28, Aug. 4, Aug. 11, Aug. 18 and the closing concert of the season is Aug. 25.

Electors Vote To Sell Chilton School Buses

CHILTON — Electors of Chilton Joint School District No. 1 voted 201 to 16 in favor of selling the district's fleet of school buses to a private bus operator.
The action Monday night came after the district was affected by two separate state rulings concerning the legality of transporting parochial school pupils on buses owned by the district.
The first, from the State Department of Public Instruction, ordered the district to discontinue the practice during the 1962-63 school year. In a recent ruling, State Atty. Gen. George Thompson held the leasing plan employed by the district after the original order was illegal.
Monday's action will divorce the district from pupil transportation. The 11 buses will be sold to a private operator who can negotiate with the school district and school operating parishes for transportation contracts.

John Race Elected To Education Post

Scattered Rainfall is predicted for tonight over parts of the upper Great Lakes, central plains, Tennessee valley and the Pacific northwest. Warm and humid weather will prevail east of the Rockies with the exception of a belt from the northern plains eastward into the Great Lakes where readings will be somewhat lower. ## Heat Factor in Death of Chicago Woman at Motel

Outagamie County Coroner Bernard Kemps has ruled that heat was a factor in the death Monday afternoon of a Chicago woman staying at an Appleton motel.
Mrs. Joseph Black, 52, Chicago was found dead in the motel. Efforts of the Appleton rest-cue squad and the county traf-fice department failed to revive the woman.
Mrs. Black, a former Ogema, Wis., woman, and her husband were vacationing in Wisconsin. Black said his wife complained of the heat shortly before her death.
Kemps said the cause of death was a heart attack, with four days of temperatures above 90 a contributing factor.

Sheinwold Needed Tricks a Play Guide

National Men's Team Championship
The correct way to play a suit depends partly on the number of tricks you need. The point is illustrated by one of the hands played in the recent Bridge Olympics.

then have to lose tricks to the ten and nine. South thus loses three trump tricks — and his contract.
If the five missing trumps are divided 3-2, South can afford to play low on the first trump trick. The ace will not fall in this case, but South can later lead the king of hearts to drive out the ace; and then he can finish drawing the trumps by leading the queen of hearts.
If the trumps are 4-1, South's only chance is that the singleton is the ace. As the cards lie, West must play the ace anyway. South can later draw two rounds of trumps with the king and queen, and can give up one other trump trick to East.
South would correctly play the queen of hearts on the first trump trick if he could afford to lose only one trump. Then he would have to play East for the doubleton ace of trumps. South would hope to win the first trump trick with his queen and then return a low trump in the hope that East would be obliged to play the ace.

Inhibitions Discarded for Fall

A beige wool evening suit worn with a white silk halter-topped blouse with a sash at the side is the fall offering of Pauline Trigere. The long skirt has front paneling with pleats from the knees down. The style was previewed by the press in New York beginning Sunday.

Designer Gaston Berthe-lot of New York's Chris-tian Dior House calls this black and white checkered wool dress at left 'Avenue Montaigne'. It's belted low, has trim of black braid, and sports a button-down tab ascot collar. The loose jacket reverses to white. At right is an Anne Fogarty discoltheque dress cut on the bias with a flirty skirt flounce, a back bow and big puff that recalls the '30s. This was one of hundreds of designs pre-sented by 40 fashion hous-es in a week-long preview of the fall fashion scene.

Today's Etiquette

BY LOUISE DAVIS

AILING HOSTESS
 Dear Louise: We are six couples who get together about once a month on a Sunday night. We take turns and have these informal gatherings in our homes at which time we serve coffee and a dessert. Our turn is coming up in three weeks. Because I am recuperating from a major operation, one of the group suggested that we all go to a certain restaurant instead so that I would be spared any extra work. I am wondering if this would mean that we all go "Dutch treat" or if my husband would be expected to pay the bill. How can I handle this? We are in debt at the moment and being host and hostess in a restaurant would be an extravagance. I am not yet well enough to entertain at home.

Louise Davis Answers:
 I suggest that you telephone the wives asking if they would mind postponing your party for another month when you will have gained more strength. If one or more of the group suggests the restaurant party anyway, you could say that you are willing to go along with the plan but that you still expect to entertain the following month. Saving it in that way would convey the idea that you assume the restaurant party to be Dutch treat.

Your Problems

Boyfriend's Sandwich Fare Subtly Points to Shortcoming

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: You fixed Benny a sandwich. What I want to know is this: When we invite the boy for dinner again, as I am sure we must, shall we have a sandwich ready, or serve him the same food everyone else gets? Non-Plussed

Dear Non: Make no special preparation for Benny. If he asks for a sandwich again, let your daughter fix him one. It may point up to her in a dramatic way that Benny has some rather odd habits which will require special handling.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I just finished reading the letter from "Desperate Mother," the woman who placed before me a child who felt that she had botched up her life so badly that her children would be better off if she killed herself. I lived through such an experience. She replied, "No, all I hope that this mother will see lelle went to the kitchen and it and change her way of thinking. My father was a severe alcoholic. He tried to dry out several times and succeeded for as long as six months. One day after he had fallen off the wagon and was in depths of despair, he came home and shot himself. When mother rushed upstairs she found him dead. There are no words to describe the feeling of utter desolation when a child realizes his love was not enough to make a parent want to go on living. This is the most devastating form of rejection. I still grieve for my father and will to my dying day. So please, Ann, tell "Desperate Mother" to put herself in the hearts of her children before she considers doing such a terrible thing. — A Friend

Dear Friend: Here is your letter. I can add nothing. You expressed yourself as only a person who has lived through the experience could. Thank you.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My husband's parents are grand people. We get along fine. Our only problem is such a minor one that I feel like a ninny complaining. Every Sunday we have dinner at my in-law's house. After dinner we adjourn to the living room where everyone plugs their eyeballs into the TV. They will watch anything that moves. During the commercials they make a feeble attempt to ex-

OILY HAIRLINE CAN CAUSE BLEMISHES

Don't neglect the hairline! For extremely oily hair, use a well-lathered complexion brush to scrub along this area. Grime often lodged here causes blemishes and blackheads. Two latherings are better than one, but be sure to rinse squeaks when tugged. A plastic dipper or hand spray are handy aids, too.

After two rinsings with lukewarm water, you might add a rinse. A tablespoon of lemon juice should be added for oily hair. For normal hair, a creme rinse may be used to make it more shiny and manageable. For very dry hair or thick hair the creme rinse is a must. Use just a small amount in a glass of water, pour over hair, comb out the tangles and rinse once again.

No Disaster Seen By Lodge in U. S. Foreign Relations

Viet Nam Situation Belittled As an Issue in 1964 Campaign

WASHINGTON (AP) — Henry Cabot Lodge, expanding on his help in the Vietnam war, said today that he doesn't see how W. Scranton in his campaign for U. S. policy in the Viet Nam war the Republican presidential nomination could become a campaign issue.

Lodge, who resigned after 10 months as ambassador to South Vietnam, returned Monday to Scranton, Pa., to help the White House, then went before the Senate to express public thanks for his services in Saigon.

In replying to questions submitted to him by Wes Gallagher, general manager of The Associated Press, Lodge said "things in Viet Nam started to go better and I felt it was my duty to be here" to help Scranton.

The questions had been asked of Lodge in Saigon, but he said he preferred to defer his replies until his resignation became effective Monday.

Lodge's Replies
The questions and Lodge's replies included:

Q. Governor Scranton disagrees with you that the war in South Viet Nam should not be an issue in the campaign. Now that you are supporting him, how do you expect to resolve this difference?

A. I have not said it should not be an issue. I have said I don't see how it could be. I don't see how it gets votes — how you can make it a good issue.

Q. How do you propose to overcome Senator Goldwater's long lead for the nomination?

A. I see no prospect of any other candidate for the presidential nomination.

AP Poll
The latest Associated Press poll of delegates lists 693 tentatively committed to Goldwater and 138 for Scranton. Thirty-nine of the 58 Illinois delegates are pledged to Goldwater, 1 to former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and 18 uncommitted.

Scranton, while on a delegate seeking drive in the South Monday, challenged Goldwater to a face-to-face debate before the 693 first ballot votes for Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona — 38 more than the 655 needed for nomination if they stick with him in front of a delegation.

Charter for Stevens Point Firm Opposed

Commissioner Says No Need for Another Savings and Loan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Home Loan Bank Board today opposed a charter for a second savings and loan institution at Stevens Point, Wis., was opposed Monday by John W. Cleary, commissioner of the Wisconsin Savings and Loan Department.

A Stevens Point group has applied to the Federal Home Loan Bank Board for authority to establish the second association.

"There is no need for a new chartering institution in the community and it would have poor prospects for success," Cleary told Joseph Muldoon, hearing officer for the board.

No Pattern Found in Firms' Personnel Ties

Conflict of Interest Study Probes Ties of Loan, Insurance Companies

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Home Loan Bank Board today said it found no clear pattern of interlocking personnel ties between savings and loan associations and mortgage insurance companies.

The board, in a report released Sunday, made no charge of conflicts of interest due to officers and directors of savings and loan associations serving as directors of mortgage insurance companies which get savings and loan associations.

The board did, however, recommend passage of laws to provide for federal regulation of possible conflicts.

Largest Firms
The study was based on the three largest firms in the new field of mortgage insurance — Guaranty Insurance Corp. (MGIC) of Milwaukee, The American Mortgage Insurance Corp. (AMI) of Raleigh, N.C., and Continental Mortgage Insurance Co., Inc. (CMI) of Madison, Wis.

The reports said that "connected associations" — savings and loan associations whose officers and directors own stock in MGIC — accounted for 26.4 per cent of MGIC's loan volume in 1962.

However, the study showed that while seven of MGIC's 12 directors are officers and directors of savings and loan associations, only five per cent of business comes from associations whose officers are directors of CMI although 10.9 per cent of CMI's insurance in force is from "connected associations."

Two of 15 CMI directors are officers and directors of savings and loan associations. The study showed six per cent of MGIC stock is owned by officers and directors of savings and loan associations. The study also showed that 11 per cent of AMI's business comes from associations which have officers serving as directors of the insurance company officers and directors of savings and loan associations. The study also showed that 11 per cent of AMI's business comes from associations which have officers serving as directors of the insurance company officers and directors of savings and loan associations.

State Volunteers to Work in Mississippi

MADISON (AP)—The Council of Federated Organizations, which is attempting to help Negroes attain equal rights in Mississippi has found at least 25 volunteers in Wisconsin.

They will help operate schools and voter registration drives and are expected to do most of their work in southwestern Mississippi.

University of Wisconsin students make up about half of the group. There is one faculty member, Peter Weiss, a project assistant at the psychiatric institute.

Loophole Is Found For Corporations in State Seat Belt Law

Amendment for 1962 Law Wording Will be Sought

MILWAUKEE (AP)—There's cause they only "arrange" the a loophole in Wisconsin's auto seat belt law and that makes corporations immune from prosecution, County Judge John E. Krueger declared Monday.

Leon Kazmierczak, an assistant district attorney, said his office would ask the Legislature to amend the law, passed in 1962, to include corporations.

The law makes it illegal for "persons" to sell 1962 or later model cars without installed seat belts. Both the judge and Kazmierczak agreed that because of the law's wording it applied only to individuals and not to corporations.

Dismissal Asked
Kazmierczak had asked Judge Krueger to dismiss a charge brought against a firm accused of selling a 1962 model car without seat belts.

The judge said that until the law was amended, corporations could continue selling cars without seat belts while individuals can be prosecuted.

He said car salesmen working for corporations could not be charged with a violation because of the law's wording.

Comedy, Quality Highlight Play as Attic Theater Begins 15th Season

BY JAY JOSLYN

The production of Moss Hart's "Light Up the Sky" with which the Attic Theater opened its 15th season did just that: it lacked nothing but the blood of a summer season. star's husband role to make it more than a strawman it could have been.

Comedic Sense

However, the surprise every Attic fan looks for each play was provided by John Dixon as the put-upon author and John Stevens as the catalytic passer-by. Dixon with his James Stewart delivery and Stevens and his comedic sense make their re-appearance with the Attic an event happily anticipated.

As a finely tuned performance is a thing expected of the Attic, so the tasteful setting and the technical staff of Phil Dixon came up to expectations. In fact, the Gary Fustfeld costumes must take equal billing with Mrs. Kirchberg's abilities in the success of her role.

Every seat opening night was filled as it should have been. Tonight the light at the Center will be dark, but the Roman candle will go off on schedule from Tuesday through Sunday and the happy wedding of Hart and heart must have a full complement of witnesses if there is any justice at all.

Essays on Tastemakers Refreshing in Style

Essays on the "tastemakers" are contained in a new book among the recent acquisitions at the Appleton Public Library. Written by Louis Kronenberger, "The Cart and the Horse" is a blend of the old fashioned essay coupled with the modern. The essays center on those who administer a kind of cultural chloroform.

His indictment of the mixed-up condition of art, society and morals is not new, nor is his attempted analysis into the reasons behind all this, but the essays are refreshing in style, charming in cultivation and wordily in wit.

Biography of a Rich Man

Stephen Becker, in another new book, has written a well-tailored biography of Marshall Field III, once the richest young man in America.

The work describes his part in World War I, his efforts to increase his fortune and his role in child welfare, mental health, race relations, community welfare and cultural organizations. Well written, entertaining and affecting, this book compels admiration both for itself and Field.

Sisters Under the Sari

Other recently, non-fiction works received at the library include: "Sisters Under the Sari," Ruth Armstrong; "John Keats, Walter Bate; The Secret Battalion," Michael Bird; "The Story of the Laser," John Carroll; "The Social and Political Ideas of the Muckrakers," David Chal-

$1.3 Million Bond Sought For Appleton Works Projects

Bayorgeon to Seek Eighth District Seat

Kaukauna's Mayor Announces He Will Run as Democrat

Joseph (Doty) Bayorgeon, now serving his 10th term as mayor of Kaukauna, announced today he is a Democratic Party candidate for Congress in the Eighth District.

Bayorgeon, 58, who said he will run as a "Johnson Democrat," upset the plans of Cletus Johnson, a Green Bay attorney, who said he would be a Democratic congressional candidate if there was no opposition in the Sept. 8 primary.

When hearing of Bayorgeon's plans, Johnson said today he will meet with a group of his supporters and make his decision shortly. He is having his nomination papers printed now and said he will have to decide today whether or not to put them in circulation.

"Several people have urged me to run, primary or not," Johnson said.

Bayorgeon said today, "I know I will be facing the toughest possible opponent in John Byrnes (the veteran Republican congressman from Green Bay), and I am running despite advice not to run from several friends and relatives."

The Kaukauna mayor said he believes that "in this election there will be a definite line drawn throughout the country against the conservative policies of the Republican Party and for the liberal philosophy of the Democratic Party."

"People must decide," Bayorgeon said, "if there is to be a human element in government."

Finance, Street-Sanitation Units Ask Approval by City Council

A $1,360,000 bond issue to cover the cost of several public works construction projects in Appleton through 1964 was recommended Monday by two common council committees.

The first reading of a bonding resolution prepared by the finance committee will go to the council Wednesday night.

During a three-hour meeting at the city hall Monday afternoon, the street-sanitation committee received a report on the status of capital outlay accounts and the money to be needed for carrying out projects the rest of the year.

To Float Bond

It was indicated the bond issue for a proposed new south-side senior high school would be floated early in 1965.

Finance Director Donald Hassler said the city will require $1 million to finance

Defendant Assigned an Attorney

Clifford Barth, 39, granted a rehearing on worthless check counts by the State Supreme Court, today was assigned a court-appointed attorney to defend him in Outagamie County Court Branch 3.

County Judge Raymond P. Dohr determined Barth is indigent, and appointed Appleton attorney Harry Hoeftel to defend him. Bond was set at $2,000.

Barth will face some 11 charges of passing worthless checks when proceedings are resumed at 1:30 p.m. Thursday.

The former Appleton man previously was tried and sentenced by County Judge Gustave J. Keller to five years in Waupun State Prison.

Barth claimed he was not informed of his constitutional rights, and the Supreme Court upheld his opinion and vacated the conviction.

He was transferred from the Waupun institution for today's hearing.

Judge Keller disqualified himself from hearing the case a second time, and Dohr was chosen to preside.

storm and sanitary sewer construction; $240,000 for property acquisition for eliminating the jog at Mead Street and E. Wisconsin Avenue, the Franklin-Washington extension and widening of the Badger-Memorial intersection; and $120,000 to finance additions and improvements to the new sewage treatment plant.

Hassler recommended issuance of obligation bonds, and obtaining a $700,000 short-term loan from local banks until the issue is floated.

Could Start in Fall

The $700,000 will be used to pay for sewer construction underway, or scheduled to start in coming weeks.

There also is the possibility the cost of the new high school and city garage will be lumped together in another bond issue next year.

Garage construction, however, could start this fall and the structure be completed by the spring or summer of 1965.

Hassler and Public Works Director Robert W. Bues emphasized the proposed $1,360,000 bond issue would be $200,000 lower than originally anticipated by them and the council during a special meeting on finances held at city hall last winter.

Other Action

The street-sanitation committee also:

—Approved purchase of $2,400 worth of insecticides to meet requirements of the state board of health.

—Delayed a decision on the request of W.A. Close to have the city pay for all, or share in half, the expense in replacing a 12-foot wide sidewalk at the rear of his store at 200-202 E. College Ave.

—Frowned on a proposal that angle parking be laid out on Badger Avenue in front of Appleton Senior High School.

—Voted to request the Wisconsin Public Service Commission to order the Chicago North Western Railway Co. to relocate warning signals at Meade, Drew and Franklin streets, and Badger Avenue.

—Decided to arrange a meeting with Town of Grand Chute officials to discuss improving the natural water courses and drainage north and east of the city. County authorities will also be contacted.

National Clearing House for Consumer Frauds Suggested

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—A suggestion for an interstate clearing house to protect against consumer frauds was made Monday by Wisconsin Atty. Gen. George Thompson.

Speaking at the Midwest regional conference of the Council of State Governments, he said such clearing houses have been set up in 14 states and the next step should be creation of a national body.

Thompson said that in Wisconsin whenever any evidence appears of confidence men defrauding the public, all the state's district attorneys are informed.

He said fraud rings usually use hit-and-run tactics and move quickly to other areas.

Say There, If You're Looking for water, you better hold that diving rod the other way. But perhaps 3-year-old Kelly Coonen may have something—holding the rod that way, maybe he'll find two sources of water instead of just one. Kelly is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Coonen. His parents could use that water to sprinkle the lawn during this dry spell, especially since only scattered showers with no appreciable amount of rainfall are expected. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Problem Created By Sludge Volume

Appleton Sewage Plant Is Too Efficient for Dumping Facility

Appleton has a sludge situation which is both good and bad.

It emanates from the new sewage treatment plant on the city's far southeast side.

The good part of the new system is that it treats waste material in heavy volume at a faster rate than the old plant.

Need Disposal Areas

However, the bad situation comes about as dried sludge comes off the conveyors at a rapid clip and in great volume.

As a result, it is hard for the trucks to haul the sludge away fast enough.

And it's getting to the point where the city is looking for places to dump the dried sludge.

Public Works Director Robert W. Bues says the present property leased by the city will be "filled up by the end of the year."

Because of the large amount of sludge, it may be necessary for the city to purchase special storage hoppers.

Needs $120,000

Milwaukee, which has a different type of sewage treatment system, sells its so-called dry sludge as a commercial fertilizer base, the income amounting to close to $1 million annually.

Now that Appleton's new sewage plant is going through trial tests, Bues would like to have the area landscaped, service

Revision Sought in Financial Records

Study Proposal To Lengthen Mayor's Term

Appleton Aldermen Plan Survey on 4-Year Tenure

A proposal to extend the term of the mayor's office from two to four years is gaining support among Appleton aldermen.

This was indicated Monday night at a meeting of the common council's finance committee which agreed to study the proposal made by Ald. Richard Huisman (1st).

The committee voted to conduct a survey to determine how many cities of comparable size have 4-year terms for their top elective official.

Reject Extension

Mayor Clarence Mitchell has not said whether he favors extending the mayor's term or not. In the spring he was re-elected to his fourth 2-year term.

Originally, Huisman introduced a resolution calling for lengthening the terms of aldermen, the mayor, clerk, treasurer and assessor.

Two council committees already have rejected making the terms of aldermen any longer than the present two years.

Finance committee members indicated that if any tenure is to be extended, it should be the mayor's office only.

Awaits Survey

The committee was reluctant, however, to put the matter to a vote and decided it would make a recommendation after the survey information is compiled.

Huisman said if changes are made to his resolution, he wanted to at least see the mayor's term of office extended.

Rising costs of election campaigns and the need for a person to have more than two years in office to "get his feet on the ground" were listed as main reasons for extending the mayoralty term.

Accountant Makes Proposals To Council Committee, Seeks to Save Appleton Time, Money

Revisions to the City of Appleton's financial record-keeping system were advocated Monday night by a representative of a firm hired by the city to audit its books.

E. A. Dettman, certified public accountant, outlined his recommendations at a meeting of the common council's finance committee.

They appeared to be well received by the committee, along with Finance Director Donald Hassler and Treasurer Ray Feurstein.

The committee directed Hassler to confer with the auditor and other city officials and come up with a program for improving the bookkeeping and accounting system.

Dettman placed considerable emphasis on separating the accounting from the actual handling of cash, indicating that account records should be maintained by the finance director's office.

Keep Up to Date

Most of the recommendations by Dettman were geared toward establishment of general accounting records and procedures for the city so that at the close of a business day all accounts would be brought up to date.

The committee and others agreed with Dettman that it was not necessary to have 14 checking accounts, exclusive of bond coupon accounts. It was agreed to consolidate checking accounts wherever possible.

All funds and balances also would be maintained in the finance director's office. The

12 Pigs Reported Taken From Little Chute Farm

Henry Kuhn, 129 Willow St., Little Chute, Monday reported to Outagamie County Police that four pigs and eight piglets were taken from his farm on Stingle Road.

Taken sometime between noon Sunday and 7:30 p.m. Monday were a 450-500 pound brood sow, two 200-pound pigs, and one 150-pound pig, in addition to the young pigs, Kuhn said.

Donald D. Miller

of Brown County, the Town of Allouez, the city of De Pere, the villages of Denmark and Wrightstown and Green Bay's 22nd, 23rd and 24th wards.

Miller has practiced law in Green Bay for nine years. He is a member of the law firm of Duffy, Dewane, Miller and Gerlikowski, and is a 1953 University of Wisconsin Law School graduate.

In his announcement, Miller said, "It is time for the people to eliminate the mumbo-jumbo of the State Legislature. For example," Miller said, "the 1963 session has not been completed, and lawyers throughout the state know the statute books have not been printed."

"The legislators of both political parties, under their new pay structure, have their arms in the public treasury. They are drawing tax money from the state treasury for recess expenses while the Legislature is technically in session and they are in their home towns."

"We all know they actually have adjourned," Miller said, "so I therefore call for all assemblymen and senators of both political parties to return, like school boys, their recess money to the state treasury."

Miller, who is the first announced Democratic candidate for the State Senate seat, will oppose veteran Republican Sen. Leo O'Brien, Green Bay. O'Brien has been in the Senate since 1952.

Public Works Director Cites Absentee Problem

Robert Bues Claims Some Members Take Advantage of Sick Leave Regulations

Heavy absenteeism is posing a serious problem for some divisions of the Appleton Department of Public Works, Director Robert W. Bues said Monday at a meeting of the street-sanitation committee.

Bues reported that 2,542 man-days a year are being lost by the department due to absenteeism.

Bues made it clear that steps would be taken to rectify the situation, indicating there was reason to believe some men were abusing sick leave privileges.

6 Relieved of Jobs

He said during the past year six men were relieved of their jobs by the city, citing them as accounting for a considerable amount of the absenteeism record.

The heaviest absenteeism has been noted in the street division, according to Bues, who said that 7 per cent of the total work force of 41 men was not available for duty over a year's time.

"It meant the equivalent of three men a day did not show up for work in that division," Bues said.

In noting that percentage of absenteeism was much lower in the sewage, engineering, maintenance and sanitation divisions, Bues said this shows the city's sick leave policy is being abused in other divisions.

City employees are allowed nine days sick leave a year, accumulative to 90 days.

Bues emphasized that his figures on absenteeism included men on vacation, sick leave and those off the job due to injuries.

He said records show that a considerable amount of sick leave taken by some employees represents full, three-quarters and half-days off.

Cites Record

The record of one employee was cited as one of the extreme.

Celebrating his honeymoon with firecrackers cost a Green Bay man $100 and costs in Outagamie County Court Branch 2 Monday.

Appleton taxpayers wishing to protest assessments will have an opportunity to do so before the annual review which meets July 13 at the city hall.

Goldwater Is Prospecting In Two States

Michigan Appeal Will be Given Tonight in Lansing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater goes prospecting for Republican National Convention delegates in Illinois and Michigan today after a New Jersey decision that kept that state's delegation uncommitted and buoyed the hopes of his supporters there.

Heckled by a throng of civil rights demonstrators, Goldwater took his case to the New Jersey delegation in Trenton Monday night. He spent an hour in a closed-door caucus, then slipped out through the hotel's back street to a back street to avoid the milling, shouting throng of pickets—and Goldwater fans—that packed the side of the hotel.

New Jersey delegates conferred for an hour, then decided not to vote on any com-

Stock Market Is Retreating

Interest Continues In New Stock Split, But Trade Moderate

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market retreated slightly from its record high level early this afternoon.

Trading was moderate as prices wandered narrowly.

Interest continued high in American Telephone's new split stock. It opened unchanged on a block of 20,000 shares and then lost half a point.

Brokers were hoping AT&T would reach a new high. They said this would give the market a psychological boost.

General Motors, which began labor contract negotiations with the gaining about half a point.

U.S. Steel picked up around a half point in an otherwise weak group.

The Associated Press 60-stock average at noon had dropped .3 to 311.4 with industrials off .3, rails off .1 and utilities off .5.

Averages Off
The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials at noon was off 0.98 to 829.6.

Tobacco issues, after having been mixed in early trading, turned downward in the wake of a report that the smoking public was reducing consumption of cigarettes.

Polaroid advanced 2 points and was one of the few issues in the list to post a gain of better than a point.

RCA and Raytheon added about half a point while Zenith was down in the same range.

U.S. Rubber gained almost a point and advances of about half a point were registered by Phelps Dodge, Homestake, Air Reduction and American Can.

Xerox was another gainer of about a point while Control Data was off a point.

Du Pont dipped a minor fraction.

Prices advanced in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate and government bonds were steady.

Bay Mayor Frank Tachovsky said that, "Although I welcome a primary and think the voters should decide who the candidate will be, my announcement probably will settle the candidate issue and avoid a September primary."

No Conspiracy In Assassination, Kennedy States

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Robert F. Kennedy declared Monday night that his brother, the assassinated president, was not the victim of a conspiracy or of communism.

The U.S. attorney general told a Polish questioner in Krakow "there is no question" that Lee Harvey Oswald killed President John F. Kennedy and "did it on his own and by himself."

Hieronym Kubiak, 25, head of the Polish Student Union, had asked Kennedy for his version of his brother's assassination in Dallas, Tex., last Nov. 22.

Kennedy replied that Oswald was a "misfit in society" and Oswald's professed belief in communism did not prompt him to murder the president.

"Ideology in my opinion did not motivate his act," Kennedy said. "It was the single act of an individual protesting against society."

Father Rescues Girl From Truck Bumper

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP) — Milk truck driver Vern Terry was startled when a motorist frantically flagged him to pull over.

make for better internal control, a constant goal in municipal accounting.

Changes in the present method of handling the payment of parking fines at the police station also were discussed after a recommendation was made that cash and paid-up tickets be forwarded to the treasurer's office on a daily, rather than weekly, basis.

Dettman also suggested the city give the finance director authority to pay claims as soon as possible so the city can take better advantage of cash discounts. Bills presently are not paid until approved by the finance committee and the council.

It was suggested they might be paid after given committee approval, thus eliminating delay in sending out checks.

The committee asked Hassler to conduct a survey to determine how much money the city is losing by missing discount deadlines.

'Improve Process'
"We feel consolidation of accounting functions in one area (finance director's office) will improve the process of getting out financial reports faster and more economically," Dettman said.

Mayor Clarence Mitchell said he felt account consolidations should be made whenever possible.

Ald. Harold Hannemann (10th) said he felt the school board could not be taken into the proposed new general accounting system.

The committee indicated, however, there could be some accounting control but none which would infringe on the school board's system.

Hassler, speaking on the general recommendations by Dettman, said that he and Feinstein had made several changes in recent months.

Johnson Ends Busy Traveling Schedule For Coming Months

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington: WASHINGTON (AP) — After two busy months of traveling and speechmaking, President Johnson is expected to spend most of July at the White House.

There are no travel plans on his announced schedule for the month, and aides said only two or three out-of-town engagements are being discussed. The President may make a brief trip to his Texas ranch for July 4 weekend.

One factor that may be influencing the President's travel plans is the Republican National Convention, which opens in San Francisco July 13 and will likely dominate the news for at least one week. Associates say it is only a coincidence that Johnson has no speaking dates during this period.

President Signs Bill Raising Debt Ceiling

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's signature has put the temporary national debt limit at $324 billion — until a year from today.

If Johnson had not signed the bill Monday, the limit would have dropped automatically to the old temporary limit of $309 billion today and to its permanent limit of $285 billion at midnight tonight.

The actual federal debt now stands at $312 billion.

France is told in the medieval and Renaissance castles and chateaux built there by the country's kings.

The $1,400 for the six-day trip was raised by Les Voyageurs during the last year. To hold down costs — gasoline here runs about 20 cents per liter (three-tenth of an American gallon) — they will picnic along the way each noon. Or, as the French would put it, pique-niquer.

Office Overwhelmed
Planning such a bus trip isn't really the business of the government tourist office. But like many others, they were overwhelmed by Mrs. Miller's single-handed undertaking in planning Les Voyageurs' trip to France, and came forth with all possible help.

Also stepping beyond required duties to help has been the Office du Tourisme Universitaire, a government agency which helps French and foreign students traveling in France. This agency lined up a dozen families willing to take the American students into their homes.

Because of vacations and other commitments of their French families, several of the students have changed homes, and the OTU list provided a welcome backlog for Mrs. Miller to rely on.

"I think people are so amazed at what we're trying to do that they feel they must help," Mrs. Miller said.

State Confirms Two Cases of Dutch Elm Disease in Neenah

NEENAH — Two cases of Dutch Elm Disease have been confirmed here. Trees at 718 Stevens St. and 640 Chestnut St. were found infected with the disease after analysis at the State Dutch Elm Disease laboratory, Madison.

Neenah Mayor Carl Loehning said this afternoon that the infected trees would be removed, and nearby elms sprayed. He added that three additional samples have been sent for analysis, and officials are awaiting results.

A Neenah ordinance states trees infected must be removed and the wood destroyed, and that all elms within a 1,000 foot radius of the diseased tree be sprayed.

A survey of elm trees in the city was begun several weeks ago by the Neenah park foreman and assistant street superintendent.

31,000 Killed on State Roads Over 50-Year Span

More Died Than In 20 of World's Major Disasters

BY JIM GREINER Post-Crescent Staff Writer

FOND DU LAC — Wisconsin has quite a traffic fatality record — there were more persons killed on the highways and streets of the state in the period from 1913 to 1963 than were killed in 20 of the world's major disasters.

About 31,000 persons lost their lives on Wisconsin highways and streets in that 50 years, compared to about 19,000 from 3 p.m. to midnight Friday, from 12 midnight Friday to 2 a.m. Saturday, from 6 to 10 a.m. Saturday, from 2 to 6 p.m. Saturday, from 12 midnight Saturday to 3 a.m. Sunday and from 2 to 6 p.m. Sunday.

Looking at the accident location map at patrol headquarters, one can see that the accidents logically occur most often where the traffic is the heaviest, at the intersections near the major metropolitan areas in the state.

The major accident areas are near and around Green Bay on U.S. 41, 57 and 141; near the Neenah-Menasha-Appleton area on U.S. 41, 10 and State 47; near the Oshkosh area on U.S. 41, 45 and State 21, 110 and the Butte des Morts bridge; near the Sheboygan area on 141, and near Fond du Lac on 41, 45 and State 23.

disasters total about 19,000, compared to the 31,000 from traffic accidents, according to statistics furnished by the Wisconsin State Patrol District 3 Headquarters in Fond du Lac.

Fox Valley Area

Fox Valley area county totals of deaths from traffic accidents show 115 persons were killed on streets and highways in Fond du Lac, Winnebago, Outagamie, Calumet and Brown Counties.

By counties last year, Fond du Lac had 26 deaths, Winnebago 22 deaths, Outagamie 24, Calumet 12 and Brown 31. Milwaukee County, which includes the City of Milwaukee, had 86 deaths from traffic accidents.

The weekends appear to be the most dangerous time on the roads, according to the State Patrol. The hours of the highest number of traffic accidents include

Phils Drop 6-1 Verdict To Houston

BY MURRAY CHASS

The flame in Elroy Face's fork ball appears to be flickering. As a result, he's not putting out fires the way he once did.

Face, not long ago one of the top relief pitchers in the majors, was rocked again Monday night in Pittsburgh's 7-6 loss to the ninth-place Los Angeles Dodgers.

The 36-year-old Pirate right-hander entered the game in the seventh inning just after a four-run rally had tied the Dodgers 5-5. He retired the first batter, but before retiring the side, he walked three batters and gave up two singles, allowing the Dodgers to score two runs, which they needed for the victory.

For his brief appearance, Face suffered his third loss in five decisions and had his earned run average soar to 5.23 for 22 games.

Face's showing followed a painful pattern that has developed for the man who won 17 straight games in relief in 1959 and who has averaged 61 ap-

Mathews, Carty Star In Victory

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves sometimes show a flair for dramatic timing, saving the best for the last.

It was that way Monday night when they trailed the St. Louis Cardinals 4-3 after eight innings.

Then the Braves exploded for four runs and beat the Cardinals 7-4 for their fourth straight triumph.

Eddie Mathews triggered the outburst with a homer, his eighth.

After that, Denis Menke walked before reliever Bob Gibson retired two men. Menke, though, raced to third on Joe Torre's single and scored the deciding run on Gene Oliver's single. Rico Carty hit Torre home and Oliver scored when outfielder Lou Brock fumbled the ball.

Mathews scored after two of his four walks, both on singles by Lee Maye.

Tiefenauer Winner

Bob Tiefenauer, the fourth Milwaukee pitcher, picked up the victory and is 3-4.

Dan Schneider started for the Braves but left in the third after giving up three runs. Bob Sadowski was charged with the other Cardinal run and Billy Hoelt worked the sixth and seventh innings.

Rough Road Ahead for McKinley in Defense Of Wimbledon Crown

Veteran Extended To Four Sets by South African

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Things aren't getting any easier for Chuck McKinley in defense of his Wimbledon tennis championship. They just seem that way.

After all, he has yet to face veteran Australian internationalist Fred Stolle and either top-seeded Roy Emerson or German upset-maker Wilhelm Bungert.

But they're all right-handed. And brash, bounding Chuck has had his troubles with the lefties.

The San Antonio, Tex., star moved into Wednesday's semifinals with a struggling 6-3, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4 decision over unseeded Abe Segal of South Africa Monday.

So far the 23-year-old Texan has lost five sets. All but one have been to lefties. Last year he didn't lose a one en route to the title.

The Wednesday semis have McKinley against Stolle and Emerson, the top-heavy favorite to win it all, playing Bungert. Each is a rematch. Bungert upset Emerson in the quarterfinals last year, then lost to McKinley in the semis. Chuck took the title with a victory over Washington Redskins of the National Football League and the signing of night the Kimberly diamond last since World War II, pulled two rookies, end Russ Brown of was in use. # Dick Radatz Saves Third Victory in 2 Days for Bosox

Orioles Trim Twins, 6-3; White Sox Down Cleveland, 5-1

BY HAL BOCK

Dick Radatz a monster? Why that's silly. Any American League batter can tell you that thing Johnny Pesky keeps calling out of the Boston bullpen is more like a machine.

Take Monday night for example. Radatz threw 32 pitches at Kansas City Athletics and 24 were strikes. It was his 40th appearance of the year and his 2-1-3 inning sting saved a 4-3 Red Sox victory.

The save, his third in two days, was the 13th of the season for the huge reliever whose 93 strikeouts give him second best total in the AL. Pesky's man in the bullpen sports a 1.62 earned run average and seems a shoo-in to snap Jim Constanti's record of 74 appearances in one season.

So Important

Pesky has nothing but admiration for his stopper. "He's so important to us," the Red Sox manager says, "it's unbelievable."

Radatz' work exasperates the rest of the league. After a recent save, one club official said, "the only way to stop the guy is with a gun, I guess. And then I suppose before he keeled over he'd strike out one last batter."

Don't bet against it.

Elsewhere in the AL Monday Baltimore stretched its winning streak to seven games with a 6-3 victory over Minnesota. Chicago topped Cleveland 5-1 in 10 innings and Washington defeated Detroit 5-3 New York and Los Angeles were not scheduled.

Radatz came on when the Athletics had reached Sox' starter Earl Wilson and reliever Arnold Earley for two runs in the seventh. He got pinch hitter Doc Edwards to fly out and then stifled the Athletics the rest of the way.

Ends Long Slump

Boston shortstop Eddie Bressoud drove in two runs with a double and a triple and scored another after walking. The hits pulled Bressoud's average to .304 and ended a lengthy slump that had dropped him below .300 for the first time this season.

Robin Roberts survived two solo home runs by Tony Oliva and Harmon Killebrew's 28th circuit as the Orioles extended their league lead to 4½ games over the idle Yankees.

Norm Siebern hammered a two-run shot for the Orioles, who have won 10 of their last 11 games in their drive to the top.

Sam McDowell had the White Sox blanked for 8-2-3 innings but Mike Hershberger's bases loaded single sent 'em into extra innings. Chicago then exploded for four runs in the 10th with run-scoring doubles by Tom McCraw and J. C. Martin the key blows.

Martin entered the game to catch White Sox' reliever Hoyt Wilhelm in the ninth inning. Wilhelm got the victory, his first against five losses.

2-Run Homer

Jim King clouted a two-run homer and Ed Brinkman delivered a long sacrifice fly to give Washington its victory. It ended a six-game losing streak for the Senators.

Claude Osteen, who won his sixth game, doubled in front of King's 12th homer in the fifth inning. Then Brinkman's sacrifice fly brought Don Lock home with the deciding run an inning later. Lock had walked and moved up on Mike Brumley's double.

Voigt Objects to Making Priority Lands List Public

MADISON (AP)—Thirty-seven areas were added Monday by the State Recreation Committee to its list of priority land acquisition projects and the list was made public over objections of Conservation Department director Lester Voigt, who said the list would be used by land speculators.

He said that listing of priority projects builds up land values and creates pressure in local communities for project purchases.

Gov. John W. Reynolds, chairman of the committee, disagreed. He said it would take 35 to 40 years for the state to buy all projects on the list. He pointed out that the state can condemn property which is priced too high and that revision of the list will also discourage speculators.

Committee projects are bought with revenue from a one-cent cigaret tax imposed by the 1961 Legislature.

The Conservation Department obtained a change in bookkeeping of the cigaret tax funds which will increase revenues a half million dollars during the ten-year program. The funds will be transferred to the conservation fund quarterly instead of annually to gain interest on money collected early.

Mac-Ettes, Appleton '9' Will Battle

MENASHA—The Menasha Mac-Ettes and Appleton will open the Wisconsin State Woman's Softball Tournament at 7 p.m. Thursday at Jefferson Park.

The Manitowoc Jets and Oshkosh will clash at 8 p.m. in the second half of the opening twin bill.

The meet's remaining four teams will swing into action Friday night. Madison plays Janesville at 8 p.m. and Eau Claire and Eau Claire and Mt. Horeb will get together at 9 o'clock.

The two encounters will be preceded by a losers' bracket contest between the losers of Thursday's two tests.

Three more games are scheduled Saturday afternoon, two Saturday night, two Sunday afternoon and one or two Sunday night, depending on the number of losses the teams take into the finale. The meet is a double elimination affair.

man Jerry Lumpe joining Kaline who has been selected for the 10th time — second only to Mickey Mantle's 13. In 12 All-Star contests, Kaline has batted .345 with two homers and six RBI.

First baseman Norm Siebern and shortstop Luis Aparicio represent Baltimore.

Boston third baseman Frank Malzone, outfielders Jimmy Hall of Minnesota and Chuck Hinton of Washington and Peppone also were named.

Previously announced as starting players were Elston Howard, Mantle and Bobby Richardson of the Yankees; Rookie Tony Oliva, Harmon Killebrew and Bob Allison of the Twins; Baltimore third baseman Brooks Robinson and Los Angeles shortstop Jim Fregosi.

Hinton, Freehan and Kaline are among the leading nine league batsmen along with starters Allison, Oliva, Robinson, Fregosi, Mantle and Howard.

Cronin praised the heavy emphasis on youth in the voting by the 281 players, coaches and managers.

Young Players

"The selection recognizes the talent of the young players," said Cronin who pointed out the league All-Star squad hasn't included so many first, second and third year men in 12 years.

Freehan, Hall and Peppone are AL sophomores, along with Fregosi. Hinton is in his third full season.

"This is proof the American League has a lot of stars in the making," Cronin said. "If established names get picked it's on present performance only."

"An athlete can fool the press and the man in the stands but he can't fool the men he plays with or against. The veterans really test the youngsters — in all ways—so when the latter are picked it's a real tribute."

"The fact Peppone has been selected each of his first two full years puts him in high company with the likes of Ted Williams, Bob Feller and Joe DiMaggio."

"Oliva's choice as a rookie ranks him with Mantle and Willie Mays in that category."

"My one regret is that Baltimore's John Powell, who was hurt in the early going, didn't start his surge before the vote was taken," said Cronin. "I've always said he can't miss being a great power hitter."

"I'd like to see him up there against the National League."

Hedtko's No-Hitter Broken Up in 4-Run Seventh

NEW LONDON — New London's John Hedtko twirled no-hit ball for the first six innings before Manawa lined six straight hits for four runs in the seventh inning en route to a 5-1 victory in Fox Valley League play Monday.

Manawa added a solo run off Hedtko in the eighth.

New London scored its lone run in the first. Dave Dernbach greeted winning pitcher Frank Leischow with a single and stole second. Dernbach advanced to third on John Moriarity's infield ground out and scored on a sacrifice by Joe Mullarkey.

Manawa's big seventh started with a single by Brown, the first hit off Hedtko. Testin followed with a double. Singles by Bugartzke, Sabrowsky, Carew and Nelson plated four runs.

Leischow fanned 13 and walked two, yielding just six hits. Hedtko gave up nine hits and struck out nine. Hedtko walked two.

pearances a season for the past eight years.

Cubs Lashed Him

He was called upon June 21 to keep the Pirates close in a game Chicago led 2-0. However, the Cubs lashed him for two runs and three hits in two-thirds of an inning.

On June 12 he replaced starter Bob Voale in the sixth inning after the Cubs had scored two runs and had two more runners on base with two out. Face put another on before Joe Amalfitano belted a grand slam homer.

Manager Danny Murtaugh says Face is one of the greatest relief pitchers of all time. For Face, though, time could be running out.

In other National League games Monday, New York edged San Francisco 4-3, Houston trounced Philadelphia 6-1, Milwaukee downed St. Louis 7-4 and Cincinnati whipped Chicago 6-1.

Howard Stars

Frank Howard drove in three runs for the Dodgers, including the winning one with his second sacrifice fly. He also homered. The Pirates, down 5-1, had rallied for a tie on two errors by third baseman Derrell Griffith, two wild pitches by Bob Miller, a walk and singles by Donn Clendenon, Bill Mazeroski, Bob Bailey and Manny Mota.

Jesse Gonder's two-run homer in the ninth off Bob Bolin lifted the Mets to their fifth victory in 10 games with the league-leading Giants. The blow followed a one-out walk to Larry Elliot. Jim Hart belted four hits, including a fourth-inning homer, for the Giants.

U. S. Boasts Strong Track Team for Dual Meet With Russia's Strongest-Ever Unit In All-Out Battle

NEW YORK (AP)—The United States has a strong track team, maybe its best ever, for the dual meet with Russia next month.

But, Coach Sam Bell quickly points out, that doesn't mean we're home safe. In fact, we could be in trouble.

"The Russian team is a strong one," warned the Oregon State coach who will guide the U.S. team in the meet with Russia's best at Los Angeles July 25-26. "It's possible our team is the strongest we have ever had and we won't do as well as other times in the past because the Russian team definitely is the strongest it has ever been," Bell said Monday.

The U.S. men have won all five previous meets with Russia. The U.S. team this year will be made up of the first two finishers in each event in last week-end's National AAU championships at New Brunswick, N.J.

And AAU Executive Director Col. Don Hull said some additional names may be added to the team after this weekend's Olympic trials at Randall's Island in New York.

"This is not going to be a friendly just," Bell said of the Russian meet. "Both teams, both countries, will be going all out. There's a lot at stake."

Angels, Anaheim Officials Near Signing of Pact

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP)—Signing of a contract for the Los Angeles Angels to play in Anaheim is expected within two weeks, a city official says.

City Atty. Joe Geisler said Anaheim management and Anaheim authorities discussed the contract Monday and that terms were "pretty well crystallized."

The 30,000-seat stadium is expected to be completed in time for the 1966 season and will cost the city $16 million.

Geisler said the proposed 35-year contract would give the Angels 66 2-3 per cent of concession income and 50 per cent of parking. The city would get 7.5 per cent of the admissions and on attendance up to 2 million out of 10 per cent over that.

Only one point remains to be settled, Geisler said.

The Angels want a straight bad faith lease on the stadium, while Anaheim wants a contract requiring Grambling and starred in the Angels to exhibit there.

Freedom Mets, LC-K Enter Semi-Pro Test

MENASHA—Three more entries have boosted the field to six for the Northeastern Wisconsin district semi-pro baseball tournament here July 16-19, Jerry Heiss, district commissioner, reported.

The latest entrants are Little Chute-Kimberly, six times district champion and last year's runnerup, Auburndale and the Freedom Mets of the Dairyland League.

Oshkosh, Fond du Lac and Wisconsin Rapids have indicated interest but their entries have not been received as yet.

The entry deadline is Wednesday.

Grambling College Accuses Pirates Of Raiding Tactics

GRAMBLING, La. (AP)—Grambling College athletic officials Monday accused the Pittsburgh Pirates of raiding the Angels 66 2-3 per cent of concession income and 50 per cent of parking. The city would get 7.5 per cent of the admissions and on attendance up to 2 million out of 10 per cent over that.

Only one point remains to be settled, Geisler said.

The Angels want a straight bad faith lease on the stadium, while Anaheim wants a contract requiring Grambling and starred in the Angels to exhibit there.

New advance in home treatment for HEMORRHOIDS

Doctors report "results good to excellent" for 5 of every 6 patients with new formula that provides more complete, longer-lasting relief!

Hemorrhoid sufferers by the thousands are turning to new M.P.O.—the advanced discovery that brings faster relief from pain, itch and swelling.

Relief starts in seconds—M.P.O. contains more medically accepted pain-relieving ingredients than the preparation you may now be using. And M.P.O. is homogenized for faster absorption of its relief-bringing medication. The instant you apply M.P.O., its anesthetic (Benzocaine) and vasoconstrictor (Ephedrine Sulfate) start to work to relieve pain, stop embarrassing itching and promote shrinking.

Relief lasts longer—Because M.P.O.'s formula has an exclusive stabilized base, the medication is concentrated on the inflamed tissue to keep on working. It also includes Hexachlorophene, the famous germ killer, to relieve bacteria-caused itching, fight possible infection.

M.P.O. is available at all drug counters in stainless ointment or suppository form. Satisfaction guaranteed, or money back. Get M.P.O. today!

7 Bicycles Stolen From Pool Areas

Heavy attendance at Appleton's two municipal swimming pools has brought on an annual rash of bicycle thefts from parking lots at Mead and Erb parks.

Seven bicycles were taken Monday afternoon from the two pools.

Taken from Mead Park were:

- Steve Zelling, 118 S. Lawe St.
- Hugh Ducklow, 322 S. Court
- Recovered on E. Newberry, just west of Kimberly.
- Dick Antinoja, 600 S. Welmer (Found in a different parking lot)
- Steven Utschig, 1419 S. Kernan.
- David Dane, 929 W. Hawes.
- Joseph McCarthy, 1411 N. Summit.
- Bob Nichols, 1736 N. Oneida.

Police said thefts of bicycles from the pools are common during the summer, although most are recovered.

Authorities advised children who leave their bicycles in pool parking lots to lock them.

wages and salaries at $323.5 billion against $304.5 billion. Steel companies in May joined the parade of large corporations notably in the auto and oil industries, announcing big expansion spending plans. And the trails pleased stock traders by reporting that earnings were picking up after a long drought. Industrial output went to a record high of 130.3 per cent of the 1957-59 average.

Stock of the Communications Satellite Corporation was snapped up by the public in June. Auto plants sent the first half output above the previous record, 4,257,150 cars in 1955. Effects of the tax cut began to appear in retail sales as well. In increasing business order, and planning.

Rep. Byrnes Reports On Social Security Bill

Would Hike Retirement Funds 5 Pct., Leave No Room for Hospital Payments

BY FRANCES MCKUSICK
Post-Crescent Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — The new increased tax base on which Social Security taxes would be figured under a bill reported out of Ways and Means Committee this week would provide an increase of 5 per cent in retirement funds but leave no room for hospital or medicare payments, Rep. John W. Byrnes, R-Wis., reported today.

The congressman, who is the ranking Republican on the Ways and Means Committee said he tried to get the committee to increase the retirement payments by 6 per cent, and include payments for dependents over 18 years of age who are still attending school, but his proposal was turned down by Democrats on the committee.

Although social security taxes will now be levied against annual incomes up to $5,400 instead of the current rate of $4,800, Byrnes said "there simply are not enough funds available under any reasonable projection of the social security tax rate to finance both increased cash benefits and medical care."

"When the committee failed to act on the Administration's efforts to include medical care in the social security system, it adopted the only sound course," Byrnes said. "I am glad to say this action was made possible through the concerted effort of the Republicans on the committee."

The Green Bay congressman, who is chairman of the House Republican Policy Committee, charged the Administration's proposal for "token" medical care for all, regardless of need, was "wasteful and inadequate."

"The cost of any meaningful program of medical care under social security would make it difficult, if not impossible, to meet the basic purposes of the Social Security program," he said. "Therefore, our committee was faced with the alternative either to broaden the social security cash benefits to maintain a better base to which the individual might look for his retirement, or to freeze cash benefits in favor of a limited hospitalization insurance."

Medical Care Costs
"If we had adopted the latter course, the cost of medical care would have so burdened the social security system, that it would have been difficult, if not impossible, to maintain cash benefits at a level commensurate with cost-of-living increases," he said.

"Further than that, if we had included medical care in our bill, we would have jeopardized the benefits of those now in retirement and diluted the benefits on which those retiring in the future might rely," he continued, explaining there simply are not enough funds available under any "reasonable" projection of the tax rate to finance both increased cash benefits and medical care.

Byrnes said when he suggested an increase of 6 per cent in cash benefits, the Administration Democrats opposed his proposal on the grounds that "this precluded further consideration of hospitalization benefits under social security."

"In order to save face," the proponents of hospitalization benefits propose that the increase in cash benefits be limited to 5 per cent," Byrnes disclosed. "It is obvious that if the social security system cannot support a program of hospitalization benefits coupled with a 6 per cent increase in cash benefits, it could not do so if the cash benefit is limited to 5 per cent."

He said although he supported a 5 per cent increase, as approved by the committee, he regarded it as "wholly inadequate to reflect a 7 per cent increase in the cost-of-living since 1958."

"I see no possibility of adding to this increase the Administration's proposal for hospital benefits, as the additional cost would wreck the social security system," he concluded.

High Court Won't Speed Decision in Appointees Dispute

Refuses to Take Jurisdiction On Powers of Gov. Reynolds

MADISON (AP) — The State Supreme Court refused today to take original jurisdiction of a case to decide if Gov. John W. Reynolds is authorized to install new appointees while the Legislature is in recess.

In bringing the test case, the Democratic governor sought approval to seat Ray J. Theisen of Eau Claire on the State College Board of Regents, and Martin Hanson of Mellen and Alderman Harold Jankowski of Milwaukee on the State Conservation Commission.

Confirmation Refused
Confirmation of the three appointees was denied by the Republican controlled Senate before the Legislature recessed until Nov. 8. Reynolds renamed the appointees and had hoped to seat them on grounds that the long recess constituted an adjournment.

A governor has authority to make appointments during a legislative interim.

Reynolds had hoped to further clarify law governing appointments and to gain a judicial decision on what constitutes a legislative recess.

Earlier this year, the Supreme Court ruled that while the Legislature is in session a governor cannot install new candidates in jobs where holdovers have not stepped down unless the Senate confirms the action.

The court also refused to take jurisdiction in a case brought by Atty. Gen. George Thompson to force removal of 13 billboards along Interstate 94 in Waukesha County.

Thompson contended the signs violate state law regulating outdoor advertising.

Naegele Outdoor Advertising Co. of Waukesha, Inc., of Milwaukee, and ABC Outdoor Advertising Inc. of Waukesha were named defendants in the action.

Members of Narcotics Ring Sent to Prison

CHICAGO (AP) — The reputed leader of a $10 million-a-year dope ring, Americo Di Pietro, 50, of Lombard, Ill., has been sentenced to a 20-year prison term by a U.S. District Court judge.

Judge Joseph Sam Perry also sentenced 11 co-defendants to prison terms ranging from 20 years to five years. The defendants earlier this month had been convicted on charges of conspiring to sell narcotics.

The other 20-year prison terms were meted out to Mike DeMarco, 50, and Charles Cole, 55, both of Chicago.

Others Face Trials
Twenty other persons, named as co-conspirators in the dope ring, are scheduled to face conspiracy and narcotics charges. The defendants were arrested after an alleged narcotics pusher was shot and killed by a federal agent last fall.

During the nine-week trial of Di Pietro and the others, the government presented $25,000 in heroin, allegedly brought from the defendants, and $1,420 in marked money allegedly used in payoffs.

Di Pietro, after sentence was pronounced, proclaimed his innocence. "I never had anything to do with narcotics in my life," he said.

'Sold Out to Soviets'

Castro's Sister Says He Betrayed Revolution

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Fidel Castro's sister Juanita has defected, charging that the Cuban prime minister betrayed his revolution and sold out Cuba to the Soviet Union.

"The people of Cuba are nailed to a cross of torment imposed by international communism," Juanita Castro Ruz said Monday night in an emotion-charged statement to Mexican television commentator Guillermo Vela.

With tears in her eyes and her voice breaking, the 41-year-old woman read a six-page denunciation of the Cuban regime headed by her brothers Fidel and Raul.

Miss Castro, one of seven Castro brothers and sisters, refused to say how she came to Mexico from Cuba. Her sister Emma has lived in Mexico City since her marriage three years ago to come out for another center-left Cabinet with Christian Democrat Moro as premier.

The Christian Democrats did not say whether they want Moro back as premier. A statement by the party blamed the Socialists for the crisis.

She said there are now 75,000 political prisoners in Cuba and the island is "an enormous prison surrounded by water."

Deteriorating conditions in the last few months finally forced her to flee, she said.

She reported the Cuban people

Republicans in State Irked by Scranton Drive

Stop-Goldwater Efforts Stir Anger, Peterson Declares

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Wisconsin Republican chairman said Monday there is a widespread feeling among state party members that they will "sit on their hands" during the presidential campaign if Sen. Barry Goldwater is not the GOP candidate for president.

Talbot Peterson of Appleton said party leaders all over the state were angered over attempts by the liberal wing to stop the Arizona senator.

Peterson said he considered the situation so serious that he had written of it to William Miller, national party chairman.

"Wisconsin Republican leaders resent the last minute intrusion of Gov. William Scranton of Pennsylvania in the race," he said. "They also resent the ganging up on Goldwater tactics that some of these people are using."

Cool Toward Scranton

Peterson predicted that party leadership would give Scranton a cool reception if he visited Wisconsin. He said party leaders had promised Goldwater that the Wisconsin delegation to the GOP national convention would remain uncommitted and not meet with candidates until sessions open in San Francisco July 13.

The Badger delegation is pledged to Rep. John Byrnes of Green Bay as a favorite son.

Peterson said he had not received official word from Byrnes on whether the delegates would be released before the convention but it appeared that Byrnes would not release them.

Young Pitcher Shot to Death

BOYLSTON, Mass. (AP) — The 12-year-old pitcher of a Little League baseball team was shot to death for trespassing on an elderly man's property, police said today.

Richard Beauregard was killed Monday when hit in the neck with a slug from a 30-30 rifle.

Carl Anderson, 67, a retired merchant seaman, was charged with murder.

Police said seven boys including Richard and his twin brother, Robert, were on Anderson's property near the victim's home. Anderson had complained to police recently about boys trespassing on his land, they said.

13 Missing, 2 Die in Oil Rig Explosion

MORGAN CITY, La. (AP) — A floating oil rig exploded before dawn today off the Louisiana coast leaving at least two persons dead and 13 others missing.

The Coast Guard said 27 survivors, all badly burned, had been picked up and were being taken in helicopters to this coastal fishing town.

At least 42 men were on board the floating drilling rig, which the Coast Guard said was operating 78 miles southeast of here.

The rig collapsed and sank after the explosion.

The Coast Guard cutters Point Lee and Point Young were standing by at the scene along with a commercial tugboat, the M.P. Anderson, and a small motor vessel, the West Tide.

Standing by at the scene along with a commercial tugboat, the M. P. Anderson, was a small motor vessel, the West Tide.

The Coast Guard said the rig, named the C. P. Baker, was owned by Reading & Bates of Morgan City, and leased to Pan-American Oil Co.

First reports from survivors said the drilling crew hit a shallow high-pressure pocket of gas at 640 feet, causing the explosion.

Fire covered the rig and the surrounding water, temporarily preventing any of the men aboard from escaping.

Congo Premier Adoula Quits; Tshombe May be Successor

Kasavubu Expects to Name New Leaders in Few Days

Proxmire Hits Plan to Boost Congress Pay

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., announced today he would try to eliminate the $7,500 annual salary hike for members of Congress from the $550 million federal pay increase bill.

The measure has been scheduled for Senate floor action Wednesday. It passed the House June 11.

Proxmire, a candidate for reelection this year, said in a statement "the congressional pay increase is unjustified, unnecessary, and because it represents a dramatic example to the rest of the country, it could be seriously inflationary."

"Members of Congress at their present $22,500 pay level already receive more than three times the income of the average American family."

"When people are paid this handsomely in any line of work, the only convincing argument that even more should be paid is clear proof that without additional pay candidates simply cannot be recruited to do the job."

BY ROBIN MANNOCK

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Premier Cyrille Adoula resigned today as the Congo marked the fourth anniversary of its independence and the last U.N. troops left the country.

President Joseph Kasavubu announced he had accepted Adoula's resignation. He said a new government would be formed in a few days.

There was widespread expectation that the new government would be headed by Moise Tshombe, the secessionist whose defiance of Adoula's government was ended by the U.N. Congo force early in 1963.

Tshombe returned last week from self-imposed exile in Europe and embarked on a reconciliation mission to bring together the still turbulent African country's feuding politicians.

The former president of Kasavubu Province announced Monday night that Antoine Gizenga, Communist - supported breakaway government, will be freed soon from the island prison where he has been held for 2 1/2 years.

All Leaders Active

With Gizenga's return, all surviving political leaders at the outset of the Congo's independence will be back in the political arena.

Gizenga claimed to be Patrice Lumumba's successor when he set up his regime in the northeast Congo after Lumumba, the Congo's first premier, was murdered in Katanga.

Bayorgeon to Seek Eighth District Seat

Kaukauna's Mayor Announces He Will Run as Democrat

Joseph (Doly) Bayorgeon, now serving his 10th term as mayor of Kaukauna, announced today he is a Democratic Party candidate for Congress in the Eighth District.

Bayorgeon, 58, who said he will run as a "Johnson Democrat," upset Bayorgeon the plans of Cletus Johnson, a Green Bay attorney, who said he would be a Democratic congressional candidate if there was no opposition in the Sept. 8 primary.

When hearing of Bayorgeon's plans, Johnson said today he will meet with a group of his

With Independence Day following on a Saturday this year, many Fox Cities firms have scheduled an extra day's closing to create the "usual" 3-day holiday weekend.

U. S. Post Offices throughout the Fox Cities — and throughout the nation — will close only on the national holiday, with regular service scheduled for both Friday and Monday.

Appleton retail firms, all though no regular policy has been established, will close just for Saturday, the Chamber of Commerce has announced. Firms closing on Friday and Monday will do so on an individual basis.

Three-Day Holiday

Friday closings will be observed in many paper mills and large businesses in addition to the July 4th shut-downs.

Bergstrom Paper, Neenah, and Fox River Paper and Pierce Auto Body, both of Appleton, are among those with a complete 3-day holiday for all employees.

Other firms are closing either or both this week and next for a general plant vacation.

Kimberly-Clark's Atlas Mill in Appleton is closed all this week for the employees' vacations, while K-C's Neenah Paper Corp. is closed for a 2-week period.

One-Half of Workers

K-C Kimberly and Neenah mills are scheduled for closings just Saturday and Sunday, while the general offices will close at 4 p.m. Thursday and re-open at regular times Monday.

Appleton Coated Paper Co. has closed all operations this week except for plant maintenance and construction work currently under progress.

Approximately one-half of Thilmany's office-workers will be off Friday and the rest Monday, although the firm's offices will stay open. All mill operations at Thilmany will stop at 10:30 p.m., Friday, and resume at 6:30 a.m. Monday.

Riverside Paper Corp., Appleton, will close at 6:30 a.m. Saturday for 48 hours of vacation, while Combined Locks Paper Co. mills will close at 3 p.m. Friday and resume operations Monday morning.

Among Appleton firms noting the holiday, Serv-Us Bakery and Miller Electric will be closed just on Saturday. Miller Electric, however, will begin a two-week vacation Monday.

Research Funds

Bayorgeon also said the federal government should be expending more funds for medical research.

Bayorgeon, who was born in Kaukauna on July 12, 1907, was educated in the Kaukauna public school system. He served on the Outagamie County Board from 1942 until 1946 when he was elected to his first term as mayor of Kaukauna.

He is a member of the Eagles and Elks clubs, the Knights of Columbus and is chairman of the League of Wisconsin Municipalities' utilities committee.

Another possible Democratic candidate for the Eighth District congressional seat is Sturgeon Bay Mayor Frank Tachovsky.

Bayorgeon said that, "Although I welcome a primary and think the voters should decide who the candidate will be, my announcement probably will settle the candidate issue and avoid a September primary."

Race Leaders Arrested Under New Charges

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP) — The racial controversy in St. Augustine took a new turn when a juvenile counselor charged Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and other leaders of the integration movement with contributing to the delinquency of minors.

Warrants signed by Fred Brinkhoff Monday named King, Dr. R. B. Hayling, a Negro dentist, the Rev. John Gibson, and J. S. Jackson.

The four were charged with using minors who were wards of the juvenile court in integration marches through the city.

U.S. Dist. Judge Bryan Simpson in Jacksonville was ready to rule today in a suit by integrationists to overturn a governor's ban on night marches.

Mr. Lucey's Declining Authority

The stature and power of political organization leaders, even as that of colonial empires, sometimes decline long before the fact becomes evident to the naked eye. Thus the name of Patrick J. Lucey, the most important of the organization bosses of the Wisconsin Democratic Party in recent times, continues to be one to reckon with. But his potency is gradually declining as can be observed if some recent events are regarded in perspective.

Mr. Lucey gave up his dearly loved seat on the Democratic national committee, without a fight, to a man who represents the cause of Sen. Gaylord Nelson in the Democratic politics of this state. Because Senator Nelson has made no secret of his desire to get rid of Lucey as a party organization chieftain, this represents a setback for Mr. Lucey, whatever sugarcoating has been applied by his seeming acquiescence to the rise of David Carley.

Six years ago Mr. Lucey lifted Mrs. Vel Phillips of Milwaukee from political obscurity and made her the woman's representative on the national party committee for Wisconsin. Mrs. Phillips liked her rank and prestige. She wanted a new term this year. Her sponsor agreed that she should have it. He tried manfully at the Milwaukee convention to persuade the party to give it to her. But she was turned down with a vote of more than two to one, in spite of the best that "Boss" Lucey could do for her.

Mrs. Swed, the victor, with perhaps less grace than the occasion called for, in a public statement after the event made it clear that she regarded her victory as a defeat for Lucey as well as for his protegee.

Now it turns out that Senator Nelson has been chosen as President Johnson's campaign manager in this state for this election year, a position for which Mr. Lucey volunteered some months ago and which it was assumed was his. Mr. Lucey is willing to step down, some of the news dispatches explaining the incident related. Those who know his restlessly ambitious and proud personality have some doubts about his willingness to be thus rudely pushed aside, although there was quite obviously nothing he could do about it since the Nelson announcement came with the visible imprimatur of the White House.

What now for the enterprising realtor who has probably been the most useful of the political mechanics the party has had during its rise to power and rank during the last half dozen years, and especially in the eminently practical matters of party organization and that essential mortar—campaign funds?

Lucey has chosen to run on Governor Reynolds' state ticket as a candidate for lieutenant governor. If they should win, the future course is probably obvious. Lucey will attempt to succeed the governor in 1966, or perhaps in 1968. If he loses? The logic of recent events in his party indicates that he will be obliged to return to the pleasures of private citizenship and the satisfactions of real estate sales.

High School Auditorium Should Be for School Purposes Only

Editor, Post-Crescent:

On Friday, June 19, an article dealing with the proposed south-side senior high school auditorium was published. It stated that city officials wished to enlarge the size and seating capacity of the proposed school auditorium from 750 seats to at least 1,500 as in the present senior high, or better yet to 2,500 seats. Reasons given for this enlargement ranged from a vague "it could be used for general public purposes" to Mayor Mitchell's observation that "Appleton lacks adequate facilities to hold large conventions."

Are we building a senior high school or a profitable meeting hall? If we lack facilities which are so badly needed that we build a four million dollar monstrosity rather than a well-equipped and badly needed high school, why isn't a civic center or some other such building erected?

As a recently graduated senior from the present high school, I know about the inconveniences which result from the use of the high school auditorium for "general public purposes." Several band rehearsals this year had to be rescheduled or altogether cancelled because the stage and the auditorium were being used for a fishermen's party. In another instance the members of the Kismet cast and crew were forced to rehearse while dodging stoves, refrigerators, and other such paraphernalia which was on stage for a cooking show. Several other similar incidents could be cited which show that the "general public purposes" infringe on school programs.

Another point which is important regarding the use of the present high school auditorium in relation to the proposed auditorium is the use of large seating capacity. With the exception of certain student programs like all-school assemblies, the musical play Kismet, and several guest artist concerts given by the band in the past eight years, the present 1,500 seat auditorium is seldom more than half filled. Plays given by the student body or concerts given by the school music department usually are attended by an audience of from 300 to 800 persons. Student assemblies, which will probably be cut to a minimum this fall because of the exemption of homeroom from the daily school schedule, are the only time the auditorium is regularly used to capacity by the student body. Thus many school functions leave half the auditorium unused. What a waste it would be to build a 2,500 seat auditorium and leave most of it unused.

Commend Two for Courtesy

Editor, Post-Crescent:

So very much is written today about the bad teen-agers. I have something to say about some teen-agers, two in particular, but not bad.

Last night there was a knock on our door from two young men. They had come to tell us that they accidentally hit our pet cat and killed her. Needless to say we were quite upset at this news. My husband asked them if they could dispose of the cat and they were very kind and did it for us.

This may sound very trivial, but for these two young men to stop and find out who the cat belonged to, much less dispose of it, was a very commendable act.

In our confusion we neglected to get their names or even thank them for their consideration.

I just hope they will read this and know how very grateful we are.

Finally I would like to investigate the performer-viewer angle of large auditorium vs moderate size auditorium problem. As a former band student I have had first hand experience as to how a large auditorium and four-story stage can gobble up the sound of the largest musical group. As a sophomore I occupied the 2nd and 3rd floor balcony with the rest of my classmates. Many times it was quite difficult to follow the action on stage. What kind of situation would a viewer face in a 2,500 seat auditorium?

Thus using experience and common sense as my frame of reference, and keeping the best interests of the senior high student body in mind, I would humbly suggest that an auditorium should be built to meet the size of the new senior high student body and their needs. The present high school auditorium could continue to be temporarily used until surveys, research, and possibly plans were completed for the building of a 2,500 seat auditorium to be used for "general public purposes" and "large conventions."

Objects to Editorial On Who Was First Man

Editor, Post-Crescent:

I hope you can print an answer to the editorial in the paper of June 22 on "Who Was the First Man?"

I ask what is happening to our country? If children are taught that we came from monkeys what respect can we expect for law and order. When even a simple prayer to teach the children about God is forbidden in school, but the monkey theory is taught are we living in atheist Russia?

And to think that a paper

like the Post-Crescent would write an editorial like that doubting God. But thank God there are still lots of people who know there is a God and try and teach their children that, and the difference between right and wrong to check the crime wave the F.B.I. predict. If the children were taught that man was made in the image of God they would have more respect for the law.

Wisconsin Report

State One of Few Not Affected by Court's Apportionment Ruling

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON—This state can contemplate the history-making decision of the U.S. Supreme Court mandating strict population districting in both houses of all the state legislatures with virtuous indifference, having already accomplished precisely that on its own initiative.

Indeed, it is a provocative fact that the summaries of the repercussions of the court mandate, state by state in the country, indicate that this is one of a very few states in the country that will not be immediately and substantially affected by the far-reaching order of the highest court in the land.

The population apportionment recently decreed by the state Supreme Court and effective for the elections in the fall for both houses of the legislature are as close to mathematical equality as the incidental conditions of the Wisconsin constitution permits. In that fact the people of Wisconsin may draw some satisfaction, although those of partisan inclination may dispute the origin and the cause of the achievement.

AUTHORSHIP

The historical record will show that it was the state court that arranged the 1964 reapportionment, following the default of the legislative process resulting from a political stalemate between the Democratic governor and the Republican legislature.

Historians of the future may well note that the political map as drawn by the judges bears a closer resemblance to what the Republican majorities in the legislature wanted than that which had been expounded by Gov. Reynolds.

But they may also conclude, if they read the record accurately and carefully, that the Republicans were not especially anxious to wade into the "thicket" of reapportionment politics, as a distinguished jurist once called it, and might not have done so even on their own terms except for the goading of Gov. Reynolds during the last three years and his own initiative in making an appeal to the court for intervention.

Thus the political credit, however it is measured, must be divided in any objective analysis. In fact, it may very well be that the state court itself may not have acted—since it did so with evident reluctance—except that the U.S. tribunal in the famous Tennessee case two years earlier provided a precedent that it apparently could not ignore or refute, in law or conscience.

AND NOW

While the absolute order of the U.S. court will have no immediate consequences in Wisconsin, it may have some indirect repercussions, nevertheless. In the first place, it should put at rest the perennial assertions of the guardians of the politics of rural Wisconsin that the "areacrat" principle has vindication in the organization of the U.S. Congress.

Time after time over many years stubborn and earnest rural politicians argued that between each state of the union, without regard to size, has two U.S. senators, the principle of area representation should be valid in the legislature. The U.S. court has now in effect incorporated the refutation into the law of the land, for all future generations to read. The U.S. Congress base of organization is not relevant to the organization of legislatures. Where a man lives has no relation to his right to representation within a state.

That plainly declared rule, moreover, is bound to encourage those in Wisconsin who are now pressing for reform of the representation arrangements on county boards and especially those which rule the populous counties without regard to arithmetic equality in numbers of supervisors between city and country. It may be speculated that the state Supreme Court in a case now pending before it will find it difficult to avoid the unequivocal rule as expressed by the U.S. court that equality in representative government cannot be denied.

Man's Real Treasure Memory of Mistakes

BY SYDNEY J. HARRIS

Things may have changed for the better by now, but when I was a boy, practically no subject in school was as badly as history.

History is the most exciting of intellectual disciplines was turned into the dreariest recital of facts, dates, boundaries, and wars.

I was thinking of this the other day, while rereading one of Ortega's fine essays in "History as a system." Ortega makes the necessary point that man is distinguished from the other primates not so much by his intelligence as by his memory.

"Every morning," he writes, "the chimpanzee and the orangutan have to face almost total oblivion of what they lived through the day before, and their intellect has to work with a minimum fund of experience. Similarly, the tiger of today is identical with that of 6,000 years ago, each one having to begin his life as a tiger from the beginning, as if none had ever existed before him."

But man, thanks to his power of memory, "accumulates his past." None of us is ever the first man; we begin our life on a certain level of "accumulated past." This, Ortega emphasizes, is our single treasure, our mark and our privilege.

Most of us know this, however dimly. But the important part of this treasure, Ortega points out, "is not what seems to us correct and worth preserving, but the memory of mistakes, allowing us not to repeat the same ones forever." Man's real treasure is the treasure of his mistakes. This is the central meaning of the study of history, and this is why Nietzsche defined man as "the being with the longest memory." When we break continuity with the past, when we want to "start all over again from scratch," we are abdicating the very mark of humankind.

What history should teach is precisely where we have gone wrong, how we have failed to learn from mistakes of the past, which experiments have proved disastrous or ineffectual, what roads seem blocked off and what seem still open to us in our quest for the good life and the good society. History should help us define the limits of our nature and the direction of our goals.

Perhaps more of this is being done today than in my time, but I doubt it. Most Americans still don't understand on what moral and philosophical bases our nation was founded, what it was built on, and what it rejected. History is taught as being "dead"—whereas nothing in the world is more alive, more pregnant with possibilities for greatness and for calamity. To ignore the past is to booby-trap the future.

GRIN AND BEAR IT

Potomac Fever— by Jack Wilson

Governor Scranton says Goldwater wouldn't do a good job of enforcing the civil rights program. Ridiculous! Everybody knows Barry is strong for the rights.

Khrushchev isn't a very neighborly guy. He goes to Sweden and doesn't even call on his old friend and employee, Col Stig Wennerstrom.

That baseball rivalry in New York is really bitter. The Yanks give away 20,000 free tickets — and the Mets strike back by losing a perfect game.

There's a report that Henry Ford II is going to marry Mrs. Christina Austin of England. And we thought Detroit was opposed to foreign compacts!

Law and Order in the South

The concern expressed earlier over potential violence in the south this summer has become a reality with the disappearance of three civil rights workers in Mississippi. The failure of southern law enforcement officials over the decades to maintain law and order in the face of popular opinion has come from the old lynch mobs to the present case. And it must be recognized that this resort to personal violence outside of law to some extent must also be blamed upon candidates for public office like Gov. George Wallace and Gov. Paul Johnson who base much of their campaigns upon the racial issue.

Northerners coming into the south do not understand this violence. It is a parochialism that relies upon man's personal ability to protect himself and his family and more indirectly his community by independent association with others who feel the same way. In the south even though lynchings have not occurred for years and then really very seldom, the threat of the violence was always there. A Negro who did not "keep his place," a white woman's honor besmirched—which usually meant some sort of affront by a Negro — or Negroes attempting to vote in the small communities were enough to raise hackles and warnings. For we must remember that the integration which has taken place in some places in the south has not reached the small communities of Mississippi and Alabama.

Autocratic Bureaucrats

The order of the Federal Trade Commission that cigarette manufacturers must label their products with a warning "that cigarette smoking is dangerous to health and may cause death from cancer or other diseases" is an autocratic invasion of the legislative process by a rule-making body.

There are indications that the FTC really never intends to put the rule into effect. It set an effective date of July 1, 1965, but said it would postpone this date if the industry has convinced the commission by then it has changed its advertising in such a way as to make the rule unnecessary. The FTC also practically invited the tobacco industry to challenge the rule in the courts, and this they undoubtedly will do immediately. A court challenge would delay effectiveness of the order at least four years.

Meanwhile Congress is considering a host of legislative proposals in the area which vary all the way from a law prohibiting the sale and use of cigarettes to an order for the FTC not to do anything. The House Commerce Committee is now holding hearings on bills which would legislate the same action as the FTC has taken on its own. In fact it was at this hearing that the FTC announced its new rule.

This shows the audacity of the Trade Commission. It told Congress in effect, "Since you haven't made up your mind what to do about this situation we are taking over."

There is honest difference of opinion whether it is the government's proper role to require such a warning on cigarette packages or in cigarette advertising. The U. S. Public Health Service's warning against cigarette smoking has been widely publicized for months. Any cigarette smoker now knows the hazards he is taking by continuing the use of cigarettes. Let's be practical, will a warning printed on a cigarette package be of any further value?

Government by regulation is the greatest threat to the democratic principle in this nation today. We have spawned a horde of bureaucrats who live off the taxpayer's dollar, who spend their lives designing methods to perpetuate and multiply their jobs, who are completely immune to the electorate and completely oblivious of the fact that they are servants of the public.

The Federal Trade Commission should be slapped down by Congress, and slapped hard, over this insult to Congress' authority to legislate.

Motor, Crescent Tilting Again

100 YEARS AGO
Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for July 2, 1864.

A correspondent asks the Motor Did Abraham Lincoln ever say that the issuance of his emancipation proclamation was the most foolish act of his life?

The Motor answers: We answer No Friend, these things are manufactured for those who only read the Crescent and are not for any sensible man to believe.

The Appleton Crescent remarks: "Thou shalt not bear false witness!"

Wendell Phillips, in a speech made in New York months ago emphatically declared that Lincoln made that very remark to him in conversation relative to that injudicious act. The Motor, with all its venomous disregard for probability and truth, will hardly call in question the veracity of Mr. Wendell Phillips, who, however noted his political idiosyncracies, has ever borne the reputation of a man of truth in all matters of fact. Can the Motor say as much? The Motor has been aching for some time for a tilt with The Crescent. A gnat gnawing the horn of an ox only wears out its teeth to no purpose!

New Fears Available For Change of Pace

BY HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Are you tired of having the same old fears?
Wouldn't you like some fresh anxieties to fret over to make your life more interesting?
Well, be of good cheer. They possibilities are endless.
Medical dictionaries now list some 300 or more specific fears, and the list is growing. They all have wonderfully impressive-sounding names, and the chances are you have had some of these dreads all along and never knew it.

If you hate losing a golf match, your friends may merely put you down as a poor sport. But if you tell them you're suffering from rhabdophobia—which is the fear of being beaten—they're bound to feel more sympathetic.
Office Dozing
Perhaps it embarrasses you if the boss catches you dozing in your swivel chair at the office. Put your ailment down as hypnophobia, the fear of falling asleep.
If you hate being alone, you have got monophobia; if you can't stand crowds, you're a victim of ochlophobia — and probably also aphephobia, the fear of physical contact.

Old maids who can't stand men, dogs or marriage are triply afflicted with androphobia, cynophobia and gamophobia.
Women who are always cajoling their husbands into taking them out for the evening suffer from a complaint common among housewives — domatophobia, the fear of being shut up in a house.
That nursery rhyme character, Little Miss Muffet, who was frightened off her tuffet by a spider, acted from a deep-seated feeling of arachnephobia.
Unusual Fears
If you're looking for some really unusual fears, here are a few:
Dipsophobia—fear of liquor.
Chrematophobia — fear of money.
Chionophobia—fear of snow.
Autophobia — fear of hearing flutes.
Taenophobia — fear that you are harboring a tapeworm.
Linonophobia—fear of string.
Phronemophobia — fear of thinking.
Autophobia—fear of yourself.
Of course, if you can't make up your mind what to be afraid of—and the choices are practically endless—there is a package deal available.
You might decide to settle for pantophobia. That means the fear of everything.

Vote Aid for Power Line

Hilbert Advancement Unit to Help Raise Electrical Supply

HILBERT — The advancement association here has voted to participate one-third in installing a new power line leading into the Civic Park.
The present electrical supply line is considered inadequate and steps are being taken to extend a heavy duty line into the park to carry the load needed at times to run the park.
In other action members decided to sponsor a baseball trip to Milwaukee July 15 for a Braves-Giants game.
Willard Franz, parade marshal for the Fourth of July, told members 42 units had entered the parade. Included will be the city bands from Hilbert, Chilton and Brillion.

This is a careless driver!

But if you were involved in an accident with him, it would do little good for you to say, "It was his fault!"

To blame him for his carelessness would do little to erase the memory of what might be the most tragic event of your life . . . really tragic because it could have been avoided.

He has been repeatedly instructed in rules of safety . . . instructed by those who love him very much. But he cannot be trusted to remember, nor can he be blamed for forgetting.

State Forest Fire Protection Costs Rising

1963 Suppression,
Prevention Outlay
Was $2.1 Million

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
MADISON — Cost of protection of the forest protection service ing the state's multi-million acre green forest resource from the peril of fire is gradually rising. The number of acres under protection is now at the highest level in history, as a result of the enlargement of forest fire districts by Conservation Commission action in recent years.

The per acre cost rose to the level that was reached in 1961. Last year the cost was only 12.1 cents per acre. A decade ago it was about eight cents an acre.

Federal Expense

About 20 per cent of the cost of the forest protection service is financed by the state budget. The state budget is financed by the two-tenths of a mill state forest tax on all real and personal property within the state.

The amount of acreage burned over last year was nominal, and prevention outlay last year at about 8,800 acres, but it was at $2,146,845, which amounted to about twice the area destroyed a cost of 12.5 cents an acre in the previous year. The average spread over the 17,100,000 age acreage lost per fire was four acres, one of the lowest scores in many years and the total estimated damage of $76,000 was also comparatively low.

The fire cause relationship remains static, said Neil LeMay, chief of the protection service. Fires ignited by sparks from railroad engines were most numerous with about 28 per cent, and represented an increase over other years. Debris-burning causes also rank high, and include fires caused by residents within the fire protection zones, LeMay said.

Mother Has Neurotic Concern On Child's Toilet Behavior

BY DR. EVE JONES

Dear Eve Jones: About half suggestions that you think can help us? MRS. T. J.

agreeable to the suggestion that he use the toilet. The other times, he resists and ends by wetting or soiling himself. Yet if I don't suggest that he m o v e his bowels, he won't for days. Also, he becomes very withdrawn at such times and hides under his bed, so it's very hard to ignore his behavior.

I went to an agency about a similar problem with my oldest child almost 10 years ago. After going there for a year, with no results, I had to take that child to a child guidance clinic for five years to clear up the problem. I called the clinic for this problem, but it won't take children as young as my six-year-old. I don't see any point in going back to the agency that didn't help me before, and we can't afford private psychiatric care. Do you have some help us? MRS. T. J.

Somewhat, you need to learn to show love to your child by some means other than paying attention to his toileting habits. And you need to help him learn to tell you he's angry and disappointed with you or afraid of you, not show you this by such regressive behavior as hiding himself and his body wastes.

It isn't likely you can manage this without personal professional help, although following the suggestions in my pamphlet, "How To Solve Toileting Problems" should help.

Ask your family physician if he can convince a private therapist to take you as a patient at a reduced fee. If not, you have no choice but to seek help from the agency you first contacted and worked with ten years ago.

It's as unreasonable for you to think the clinic helped you as for you to believe the first agency didn't help. Quite obviously, you still have neuro-

State Employees Hit Salary Plan

Union Protests
Discriminatory Merit
Increase Formula

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — The Wisconsin State Employees Association is complaining about what it calls a discriminatory formula for the distribution of merit pay increases among officials and workers in the state government services.

The union, in its publicity organ, protested the distribution of such merit pay adjustments according to arbitrary schedules.

It said there is as much meritorious service in the general civil service employee schedule as in another which covers crafts, labor and domestic service, but that the state is not now recognizing the fact in the decisions made by appointing officers.

"Complete Overhaul"

It asked for a "complete overhaul" of the merit increase program.

The union said it will sponsor the necessary legislation to modify the rules when the 1965 Legislature convenes, to obtain automatic within grade increases at periodical intervals "at least up to the higher grade levels."

"Perhaps there is some good way of identifying degrees of meritorious service in the upper salary brackets," the union organ declared. "There is none at the lower salary levels."

Attitudes about toileting and you're still creating neurotic problems in another child. So leave the judgment about whether or not you're being helped to the ethics of the professional mental health worker who will agree to take you as a patient. A well-trained therapist in a reputable agency won't keep you as a patient if you're not responding to treatment.

To receive a copy of Dr. Jones' Pamphlet, "How To Solve Toileting Problems," send 25 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Dr. Eve Jones, care of Appleton Post-Crescent.

Price of Wedded Bliss Going Up

Marriage will become a more expensive undertaking in Outagamie County and throughout Wisconsin Wednesday.

Effective July 1, the State of Wisconsin wants $1 out of every marriage license fee. The money is to be used by the State Advisory Council for Home and Family.

The standard marriage license fee had been $3. Needless to say, the fee now will be higher.

The Outagamie County Board's executive committee, Monday voted to raise the license fee in Outagamie County from $3 to $4.50. The new state law says each county should now receive $4, plus a notary fee (which in Outagamie County is 50 cents).

Board Chairman Alvin Fulcer, after the executive committee approved the license fee hike, said, "I don't expect that the increase will have an appreciable affect on love or marriage in Outagamie County."

Indian Pow-Wow Set at Oneida

ONEIDA—The annual Indian homecoming will be held July 4 and 5, according to an announcement by Holy Apostles Episcopal Church, sponsor of the affair.

Working Wife Reappraises 'What's Important' Question

BY MARY FEELEY

Consultant in Money Management
To work or not to work — that's the question on the minds these days. Thousands of women all over the country, from age 35 on up, are enrolling for college courses to prepare them for job hunting. A second income, in prospect, seems a fine solution to money problems. Equally important, a job outside the home promises more stimulation than housework, and might make sure of talents that seem to be going to waste. So aren't all the advantages on the side of starting or resuming a career?

The two letters that follow provide a "before and after" picture of one woman's experience. I offer them simply as food for thought on this increasingly absorbing subject. The first letter from Mrs. E.

M. R. came to me shortly after the first of the year:

Dear Miss Feeley: I'm sure you have been of invaluable help to many, many couples and would like your opinion on a problem that is facing me at present.

I am 54 and work as secretary to executives in a national firm, where I have been employed for 12 years. My position carries a certain amount of prestige and I earn $400 a month. But I am exhausted almost all the time. I am sick of rushing, which includes hurrying to get breakfast for my husband mornings, then racing to the bus and going at top speed all day long, followed by dashing about the kitchen evenings to fix dinner, with an hour or two at most left for reading and watching TV, although I invariably fall asleep. We have given up visiting. Weekends are taken up with the many household chores that recur constantly, marketing and trying to see my children and beloved grandchildren. The hours are just not long enough.

Presently I am at home for a few days, recovering from flu. Am thinking of giving up my job and taking joy in running my home properly and being "just a housewife" again. My husband does not approve. He says: Number one, I will become a full-time baby sitter for our two daughters-in-law; and number two, it is ridiculous to give up that nice salary.

During the years of my employment, I have bought some good stocks which pay dividends and I have a savings account. My husband has some money invested and also some cash in the bank. He earns $700 a month.

Am I being impractical in wanting to enjoy life more?
Mrs. E.M.R., New Orleans

My answer to Mrs. R. was that it seemed to me she had earned the right to quit the job in favor of homemaking. She had tried them both, and found out which was the more important to her. I also asked her to let me know what her final solution was, after she had time to think it over. Here is what she writes:

Dear Miss Feeley: I want to express special thanks for your interest. I feel a sense of great satisfaction and reassurance in the fact that your views on my problem coincided with the decision I have made. I gave my employers two weeks' notice that I was leaving. They were surprised and disappointed, but I must say, very understanding.

On the home front, my husband seems to have become accustomed to the idea and may even like it now! Our home has a sort of "new look" reflecting care, and our meals are planned much better and served on time, with a delightful absence of any rushing.

I really believe that what upset my husband most at first was the thought of a drastic change in what had become our "way of life" rather than the decrease in earnings and the adjustment it entails.

You can write Mary Feeley in care of the Appleton Post-Crescent. She will respond in her column in questions of widest interest.

Johnson Orders Search Expanded

Three Civil Rights Workers Now Missing for Nine Days

BY MICHAEL SMITH

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP) — The search for the three civil rights workers who vanished nine days ago was stepped up today at the direction of President Johnson. The Mississippi Highway Patrol also made it clear it was in this red-clay hill country of east Schwerner central Mississippi to stay until authorities find out what happened to the missing trio.

Rita Schwerner, 22, wife of Michael Schwerner of Brooklyn, one of the missing men, asked the President Monday to send 5,000 men to Mississippi to join in the search.

Mrs. Schwerner, after meeting with the President at the White House, told newsmen Johnson advised her he couldn't send so many.

Schwerner, 24; Andrew Goodman, 20, another white New Yorker, and James Chaney, 22, a Negro from nearby Meridian, were last seen June 21 when they were freed from jail here after posting a $20 bond in a traffic case.

Before Mrs. Schwerner visited the White House, press secretary George Reedy told reporters that efforts to find the trio had been stepped up and expanded.

Mrs. Schwerner said the President assured her that the federal government is "doing everything in its power."

The President, Mrs. Schwerner added, said if he "considered it useful to send more men, then he would send more."

Federal and state authorities, joined by 100 sailors from the Navy airfield at Meridian, continued their search in the hills and snake-infested swamps of Neshoba County.

State game wardens, using radio-equipped skiffs, dragged the muddy Pearl River and other bodies of water in the area.

"We've covered 55 miles of the Pearl itself and haven't found even a net," said Dewitt Hutton of the State Game and Fish Commission.

The FBI ordered several thousand circulars of the three youths distributed in a five-state area. The circulars asked anyone with information to call FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover or the nearest FBI office.

The circulars went to Alabama, Tennessee, Louisiana, and Arkansas as well as Mississippi.

The only clue to the baffling disappearance was the finding last Tuesday of the charred hulk of the station wagon driven by the three youths.

12 Airmen Missing as Planes Crash

Force photographers in small boats below were shooting a para-rescue training film. A Gemini capsule was in the water below, and the planes were dropping men to simulate its recovery.

A spokesman at Kindley Air Force Base, four miles from the scene, said there were indications all seven survivors had jumped before the crash as part of the scheduled test-rescue operation.

A witness at the site, two miles at sea, gave this report: "The planes were flying at about 1,500 feet on the same course when they touched. The wing of one plane tore off, 'there was an explosion and they fell into the sea. After the collision I saw two people parachute out, then more jumped as the planes neared the sea.'"

Boats, Planes in Search

One plane was an HC54, a military rescue version of a civilian DC4. It was based at Lajes in the Azores. The other, based at Kindley, was an HC97, a military rescue version of a civilian Stratocruiser. Each was a four-engine, propeller-driven plane.

Crash boats, a Coast Guard cutter, a navy tug and several planes joined in the search for survivors.

Project Gemini will put two men into orbit in the same space craft.

Recovery experiments were carried out last week near Hamilton by the manned spacecraft center training base for astronauts at Houston, Tex. Astronaut James E. Lovell and other personnel from the center who witnessed the tests returned to Houston over the weekend, but the boiler-plate capsule used in the experiments was left behind so the air force could make additional tests and use it in the movie "Para-Rescue in the Space Age."

Copter Hovers For 101 Hours Over Air, Eggs

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP) — For 101 hours the only thing between a helicopter and the ground was fresh air and 48 eggs.

Then, Monday afternoon, the copter dropped down to an altitude of three feet, the four cartons of eggs were plucked from its skids, and it sat down on hard ground for the first time since Thursday.

National Aeronautics Association referees—who taped the eggs to the skids to make sure the Hughes 200 machine made no unauthorized landings—said the 101-hour, 5-minute mark will be posted as a new helicopter endurance record.

Four pilots took turns manning the copter, climbing in and out when it dropped down to a yard above Kern County Airport. The craft also was fueled by a siphon device as it hovered there.

When the old mark, 72 hours, set four years ago by Navy fliers, was cracked Sunday, pilot Gene Goodman dropped an egg to the runway. It was one he had in his pocket.

reconciled with all leaders except Tshombe returned to the Congo.

Kalonji said he was willing to accept Joseph Ngabula, who supplanted him in South Kasai.

Tshombe said he also has been promised support by Andre Lubaya, former provincial president of Kasai. Lubaya was sent across the Congo River from Brazzaville by exiled extremists who call themselves the "National Liberation Committee" and have been trying to overthrow the Leopoldville regime of Premier Cyrille Adoula.

Tshombe said Lubaya told him the Brazzaville committee was "prepared to back all my actions, without putting forward conditions."

May Saccard Adoula

If Tshombe succeeds in his peace-making role, he is given a good chance to succeed Adoula whose regime had been doomed by his failure to stem the rising tide of tribal war and rebellion in the eastern and southwest Congo.

The national referendum is under way on a new constitution that probably will result in a new central government.

The U.N. ended its military role in the former Belgian colony today for lack of money. There were no parades or ceremonies to mark either the departure of the U.N. troops or the independence anniversary.

A Canadian air force transport took off with 58 members of a Canadian army signal unit. A few minutes later a chartered DC6 left with 85 men of the Nigerian army's 1st Battalion.

The last man aboard was the U.N. force's last commander, Maj. Gen. J. Aguyi-Ironsi of Nigeria.

Causing Confusion Less War Talk Inside U. S. Administration

BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — There is less Red China war talk inside the administration than there is outside.

This is causing a certain public confusion because the warnings of possible major conflict in the Far East are not supported by information on when, where and under what circumstances the conflict might begin.

There is a greater danger than home-front misunderstanding, however, because the Communist leaders in China and North Viet Nam may think the administration is misreading the warnings which President Johnson and his associates are trying to send them. For them particularly, the central question is whether they believe what they are being told.

Fine Line

The administration is dealing with a fine line between bluntness and bluster in its efforts to get its message through to the Red Chinese leaders whose actions in the months ahead could very well bring on the war.

The difficulty with which Johnson and his associates are handicapped is that in this summer of presidential politics there is a potential, if not already existing, conflict between Johnson's foreign policy needs and his domestic political concerns, as seen by people close to him.

The major foreign policy issue for Johnson in the forthcoming

ing campaign in his opinion is "peace." By this the President and his advisers mean the issues involved and the results obtained in the gradual lowering of temperatures between the Soviet Union and the United States or, more broadly, the Western allies and the Soviet bloc.

Peace Policy

The results on which he relies for evidence of achievement by his peace policy and that of the late President John F. Kennedy include the year-old treaty putting a limited ban on nuclear weapons tests, the Washington-Moscow hot line, the nearly completed removal of Soviet troops from Cuba and the new U.S.-Soviet consular convention.

In Southeast Asia, however, there is no peace and in fact the Chinese faction of the Communist movement is on the march.

Great Lakes Water Level Study Sought

TORONTO (AP)—Officials of two Canadian provinces and eight American states affected by the low water level of the Great Lakes decided Monday to call on their respective federal governments to launch immediately a special and comprehensive study of the problem.

The Canadian and U.S. governments will be asked to have the study of the whole area of water management undertaken by the International Joint Commission, which has jurisdiction over border waters.

1-Day Conference

The one-day conference, called by the Ontario government because of the current acute concern over the low water, also indicated it will meet again later to hear a progress report.

A statement issued after the meeting said, too, that the two provinces involved—Ontario and Quebec—offered to co-operate fully with the Great Lakes Commission, made up of representatives of the eight lake-bordering U.S. states in attendance at the meeting.

U.S. states represented were Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin.

He said Byrnes "has made a commitment not to release the delegation beforehand and I don't think he'll break it."

At Harrisburg, Pa., Monday night supporters of Scranton announced the formation of a "Scranton Corps" to woo delegates from Goldwater.

State Rep. Alan P. Williams said he was coordinating a drive to recruit 70 volunteers to go into certain key states where delegates were not committed to Goldwater may be swung over to Scranton.

The states he listed included Wisconsin.

Proposes Study of Debt Ban

Warren Knowles, endorsed Republican candidate for governor, said Monday that Wisconsin should review its constitutional prohibitions against state debt.

"We have accrued indebtedness of some $300 million through the building corporation method," he said at Oconomowoc. "The question now is whether this method, or a change to outright state debt under careful restrictions, gives the Legislature and the people the best control factor. . . I am concerned that the present system has expanded to where at least one of our building corporations is not being operated by elected legislators, but by appointed officials."

"This is an invitation to open the floodgates and permit the state to be obligated by persons not directly responsible to the people."

Mundt Will Try to Ban Red Passports

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Karl Mundt, R-S.D., said today he is preparing new legislation to prevent Communists from obtaining passports.

He deplored a recent Supreme Court decision striking down a provision of the 1950 Internal Security Act banning the issuance of passports to members of organizations required to register as Communist groups.

Mundt gave no details of the new legislation he plans to introduce.

Court Ruling On School Fees Reversed

High Court Says County District Should Get Tuitions

MADISON (AP) — The Wisconsin Supreme Court today, in a 4-3 decision, reversed a circuit court ruling that gave Racine $442,504 in tuition fees paid by students from outside the city.

The high court majority ruled that Unified School District No. 1 of Racine County is entitled to the tuition fees.

When the district took over the city school system in Racine in 1961, the city claimed the fees which had been paid by rural municipalities as tuition for students outside the city who attended city schools in 1960-61.

The school district argued that when it took over other school property it also obtained right to the tuition fees.

Judge Elmer D. Goodland of Racine County Circuit Court ruled in favor of the city and said the sum was not included in the agreement under which school property was sold by the city to the new district. The district appealed.

Justice Myron Gordon, who wrote the court's majority opinion, said the law is construed to mean that it was the Legislature's intent to include intangible school assets within the term "school property."

"The unified school district assumes the outstanding obligations of the city which were issued for school purposes," Gordon said, "in exchange for all school assets, including the tuition fees."

State Library Association Is Honored

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The Wisconsin Library Association was named today as winner of the first annual $1,000 Grolier National Library Week Award for its program "to achieve state and local library development goals."

The announcement came at the annual conference of the American Library Association. Presentation of the $1,000 prize check will be made during the meeting of the Wisconsin association in September.

A. Edward Miller, chairman of the National Library Week steering committee, told Wisconsin chairman Nathan H. Bergstrom of Neenah in a letter that the state program was chosen unanimously by the three judges to receive the initial award.

"We all feel that you made a tremendously worthwhile contribution to the literacy and the opportunity of all the people of Wisconsin through the library development you have helped to further," Miller said.

Executive director of the Wisconsin program was Gerald A. Somers, director of the Kellogg Public Library in Green Bay.

Tot Fatally Hurt in Ferris Wheel Tragedy

HUNTINGTON, N.Y. (AP)—A ferris wheel accident has taken the life of a 2-year-old girl.

The child, Deborah Shaw, died Monday nearly 24 hours after plunging 60 feet to asphalt pavement. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shaw of Commack, N. Y., who fell into another seat on the wheel, were in serious condition.

Police said the Shaws' seat apparently tipped over when it jammed and did not swing freely.

New legislation he plans to introduce.

Asks FBI Investigate

Commission Disturbed Over Diary Publication

WASHINGTON (AP) — Disturbed by publication of a major item of evidence in its investigation of President John F. Kennedy's assassination, the Warren Commission has asked a full FBI investigation of how parts of Lee Harvey Oswald's diary got into print.

It wants to find out how the diary of the sharpshooter accused of assassinating Kennedy in Dallas last November "was obtained and whom it was obtained from" before it was quoted over the weekend in copyright stories in the Dallas Morning News.

Oswald Journal

The probe was announced Monday night by J. Lee Rankin, chief counsel of the presidential commission headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren. Rankin hinted strongly that the commission suspects the journal of Oswald's two years in the Soviet Union got into print through the Dallas police department.

Rankin also told reporters that the commission's report—which the investigators had hoped to have ready for President Johnson by today—would not be issued until after July 18 at the earliest.

Following Rankin's announcement of the probe, Jack B. Kreuger, managing editor of the Dallas Morning News, said:

Every Right

"The Warren Commission has every right to make this request of the FBI. The FBI has a right to ask us what it will, under the proper conditions."

"There are other rights involved. The American people have a right to know, particularly any facet of an assassination of a president of the United States. The American press, large and small, has an obligation to tell them. This obligation and right is enunciated in the First Amendment to the Constitution."

"The Dallas News is going to report every piece of important news to its readers to the limit of its ability."

Quotes Diary

The stories in the News contained quotations from the wald diary which expressed wrath of the Marxist ex-Marxist at having been denied Soviet citizenship. Rankin said the commission was seriously concerned over the breach of secrecy on materials under its control, partly because of fear of a piecemeal disclosure of evidence might be misleading the public.

Copter Shot Down; Pilot Gunner Killed

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Communist guerrillas shot down a U.S. Army helicopter in South Viet Nam's northern mountains today killing an American pilot and his U.S. gunner.

It was the third American helicopter crash in the past five days with a total loss of eight Americans.

The crash brought the toll of U.S. dead in Viet Nam up to 244—148 of these killed in action against Communists.

An American spokesman said the helicopter was hit 35 miles south of Da Nang while on a supply mission.

Two U.S. aviators were killed Friday when they were shot down in flames in the south Mekong River delta. Two crewmen were wounded.

Four Americans aboard a helicopter were killed Monday when it crashed while leaving Cao Lan airfield in Kien Pong Province about 60 miles southwest of Saigon. This crew was apparently not due to ground fire, a spokesman said.

1-Day Conference

The one-day conference, called by the Ontario government because of the current acute concern over the low water, also indicated it will meet again later to hear a progress report.

A statement issued after the meeting said, too, that the two provinces involved—Ontario and Quebec—offered to co-operate fully with the Great Lakes Commission, made up of representatives of the eight lake-bordering U.S. states in attendance at the meeting.

U.S. states represented were Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin.

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—Wisconsin delegates voted 16 - 0 against a resolution adopted Monday by the National Education Association's Department of Classroom Teachers giving Quebec—offered to co-operate fully with the Great Lakes Commission, made up of representatives of the eight lake-bordering U.S. states in attendance at the meeting.

The resolution, setting a July 1, 1966 deadline for integration, still faces a final vote in the NEA representative assembly later this week.

Copter Hovers For 101 Hours Over Air, Eggs

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP) — For 101 hours the only thing between a helicopter and the ground was fresh air and 48 eggs.

Then, Monday afternoon, the copter dropped down to an altitude of three feet, the four cartons of eggs were plucked from its skids, and it sat down on hard ground for the first time since Thursday.

National Aeronautics Association referees—who taped the eggs to the skids to make sure the Hughes 200 machine made no unauthorized landings—said the 101-hour, 5-minute mark will be posted as a new helicopter endurance record.

Four pilots took turns manning the copter, climbing in and out when it dropped down to a yard above Kern County Airport. The craft also was fueled by a siphon device as it hovered there.

When the old mark, 72 hours, set four years ago by Navy fliers, was cracked Sunday, pilot Gene Goodman dropped an egg to the runway. It was one he had in his pocket.

reconciled with all leaders except Tshombe returned to the Congo.

Kalonji said he was willing to accept Joseph Ngabula, who supplanted him in South Kasai.

Tshombe said he also has been promised support by Andre Lubaya, former provincial president of Kasai. Lubaya was sent across the Congo River from Brazzaville by exiled extremists who call themselves the "National Liberation Committee" and have been trying to overthrow the Leopoldville regime of Premier Cyrille Adoula.

Tshombe said Lubaya told him the Brazzaville committee was "prepared to back all my actions, without putting forward conditions."

If Tshombe succeeds in his peace-making role, he is given a good chance to succeed Adoula whose regime had been doomed by his failure to stem the rising tide of tribal war and rebellion in the eastern and southwest Congo.

Much Danger In Mounting Public Debt

Few Dissenters To Government's Finance Methods

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Congress has just found itself compelled to raise the public debt limit to $324 billion—the highest in American history.

The Treasury Department, moreover, has predicted that another $6 billion will be added to the debt in 1965 and another $3 billion in 1966. Only vague hints are being given that maybe some day the budget will be balanced, and there is no sign as yet of any effective steps being taken to achieve that goal.

The most significant aspect of the whole problem is the general indifference with which the American people are treating the unsound trend in government finance. Maybe it's because people do not know what is really involved and what the dangers are that lurk behind the steady increases in the public debt. Maybe it is because many government officials of the so-called "liberal" school of thought have been successfully "brainwashing" many citizens into believing that it doesn't matter how high the deficits are piled up and that an artificial prosperity can continue indefinitely when it is based on money borrowed to pay deficits.

Few Dissenters

Few dissenting voices are being heard. Notable among them is that of Senator Harry Byrd of Virginia, Democrat, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee. In his speech to the Senate on the raising of the debt limit he called attention to the fact that the proposed increase is the largest in 19 years. He said:

"We needed a debt limit of only $300 billion to finance World War II. That was reduced to $275 billion when the war was over. Now a limit of $330 billion-plus is in clear prospect." The Virginia senator pointed out that $25.7 billion has been added to the federal debt in the past four consecutive years since the budget was balanced and that, according to treasury estimates, another $12 billion of deficits are planned. He continued:

"This will be $38 billion of debt added in six consecutive years of deficit financing. The average is $6 billion a year. Deficits now planned contemplate neither recession at home nor emergency abroad."

"Such needless use of deficit and debt financing is reckless and dangerous. It has become chronic. The end is not in sight. We have got to stop at some point."

Interest Cost

"Interest alone is now costing the people of this country $11 billion a year. This is the equivalent of more than 12 cents on every dollar to be assessed on federal taxpayers."

Interest on the federal debt is now second only to national defense among the expenditure items in the federal budget. I raise the question as to how long will it be before this interest item doubles again under present fiscal practices."

Warnings like this have been given before in world history by courageous men. But a new school of thought has arisen lately in America which insists that a business depression is improbable, if not impossible. There is an attitude developing that, as soon as the effects of the current tax reduction wear out, another pump-priming stimulus can be provided through a second tax cut. Such tactics, however, ignore the danger of a loss of confidence by the public due to major developments in the economic world. Here, for example, are some possible contingencies:

Run on Gold

1. A run on gold and on the dollar. This would require strong counteractive steps such as import controls, capital controls, tighter money—all of which would tend to depress business.

2. Tightening of credit. If more inflation develops and money is sharply tightened, there would be a recession.

3. A speculative spree in stocks or commodities.

4. Economic trouble abroad.

5. A strike in a major industry, such as railroads or steel. This could bring a setback in general business.

6. Political developments in dictating policies which involve more and more spending of money borrowed to meet budget deficits. This could foreshadow a further depreciation of the dollar.

Important Factor

The important factor in almost every one of the possible causes of a business decline is public confidence. Peoples and governments abroad may not prove as receptive as Americans in accepting the explanations being given in this country about deficit financing or increases in the public debt. Once confidence begins to decline in the ability and intention of the U.S. government to balance its budget and reduce its debt, there is likely to be a change in the attitude of foreign investors. They will continue to lend or invest their money only if interest rates go up higher and higher.

The average man didn't pay much attention to what was happening in the late 1920's, even though there were some danger signs on the economic horizon. It is only when the debacle really comes and confidence is weakened almost overnight that people begin to wonder why they didn't notice sooner the clouds gathering in the sky. A steadily rising public debt and a continuing unbalanced budget form just such a cloud.

Schizophrenia Is a Common Mental Illness

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: Our 21-year-old daughter had a nervous breakdown and has been admitted to a clinic. She is responding well to treatment but the doctor told us she is a schizophrenic. Do you have any literature on the subject? We love her dearly, and if Dr. Molner we were to know more about it, we might be of greater help to her when she is released.

MRS. J. M. G.

Just loving her is a big start toward being able to help her, but it is, as you say, important to know more about schizophrenia.

This is too complicated a subject to be encompassed in just a column or even a small booklet. Briefly, however, schizophrenia is a common type of mental illness. It is also called "split personality," but I am still of divided opinion as to whether this is a good term. It is true, however, that in schizophrenia one part of the mind (or emotions) becomes distorted while other parts remain normal. But that is also true of some other mental illnesses.

Schizophrenia is a complicated form of mental illness. You should do some reading, not on schizophrenia in particular but on mental illness in general, to be able to help your daughter.

Don't Oversimplify

I have no compact, simple little booklets on the subject because if you try to oversimplify things, you don't do any good at all.

If you happen to have, or have access to, my new book "Stay Well Every Year of Your Life," published by Prentice-Hall, by all means read Chapter 8—"Prevent Mental Breakdowns." Mental illness, like a physical illness, should be understood so you can do all that is possible to avoid, ease or correct it.

These mental illnesses are not easy to understand. But it is much worse to give up trying to learn about them just because they are difficult.

Obtain some pamphlets and lists of reading material from the organization which is quietly doing so much to foster understanding of this problem. Get in touch, by all means, with the mental health society in your community. If there is none locally then consult your state society. And if you have trouble doing this, write to the National Association for Mental Health, 10 Columbus Circle, New York 19, N. Y.

They'll advise you where to go locally.

Dear Dr. Molner: Does a goiter start under the chin? I'm ill, and am getting large under the chin.

A goiter is a swelling of the thyroid gland, below the Adam's apple. It may be on either or both sides.

A swelling under the chin would be something else, perhaps a swollen lymph gland, which would be felt as a distinct lump. Or, pardon the expression, the "swelling" could be

Note to J. K. F.: You are correct. Vitamins are in the food category, and certainly do not cause mental illness. If they did, we'd all be mentally ill.

and stay rid of them? For an-ful booklet, "How To Heal Peptic Ulcers and Keep Them Healed." For your copy write to Dr. Molner in care of Appleton Post-Crescent, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling. (Copyright, 1964)
